mine, and said: 'Let's go out to the palm trees.' So he came out, wearing a Khamīṣah, and I said to him: "Did you hear the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ mention Lailat Al-Qadr?" He said: "Yes; we observed I'tikâf with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ during the middle ten days of Ramaḍân, and we came out on the morning of the twentieth. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ addressed us and said: 'I was shown Lailat Al-Qadr but I forgot it' - or 'I was caused to forget it, so seek it in the last ten nights, on the odd-numbered nights. And I saw that I was prostrating in water and mud, so whoever was observing I'tikâf with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, let him go back.' So we went back and we did not see any clouds in the sky, then a cloud came and it rained, until the roof of the Masjid, which was made of palm branches, flowed with water. The Iqâmah was called for the prayer, and I saw the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prostrating in water and mud, until I saw the traces of mud on his forehead."

[2773] (...) A similar report (as no. 2772) was narrated from Yahyâ bin Abî Kathîr with this chain. In their Hadîth it says: "I saw the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ when he had finished (praying) and on his forehead and the tip of his nose there were traces of mud."

When they were over, he ordered that the tent be taken down, then he was shown that it (Lailat Al-Qadr) was in the last ten nights, so he ordered that the tent be put back, then he came out to the people and said: 'O people, Lailat Al-Qadr was shown to me, and I came out to tell you about it, but two men came disputing, and the Shaiṭân was with them, and I was caused to forget it. So seek it in the last ten nights of Ramaḍân, seek it on the ninth, the seventh and the fifth.'" I (Abû Naḍrah) said: "O Abû Sa'eed, you know more about numbers than I do." He said: "Yes, we are bound to." I said: "What are the ninth, the seventh and the fifth?" He said: "When twenty-one nights have passed and the next night is the twenty-second, that is the ninth. When twenty-three have passed, the next night is the seventh. And when twenty-five have passed, the next night is the fifth."

Chapter 2. When Should The One Who Wants To Observe I'tikâf Enter His Place Of I'tikâf?

[2785] 6 - (1173) It was narrated that 'Āishah [may Allāh be pleased with her] said: "When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ wanted to observe I'tikâf, he prayed Fajr then he entered his place of I'tikâf. He commanded that his tent be set up - when he wanted to observe I'tikâf during the last ten days of Ramaḍān - and Zainab ordered that her tent be set up, and other wives of the Prophet ﷺ ordered that their tents be set up. When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prayed Fajr, he looked and saw the tents, and he said: 'Is it righteousness that they seek?' He ordered that his tent be taken down and he did not observe I'tikâf during (that) Ramaḍān, until he observed I'tikâf during the first ten days of Shawwāl."

[2786] (...) A Hadīth similar to that of Abū Mu'āwiyah (no. 2785) was narrated from 'Āishah [may Allāh be pleased with her] from the Prophet ﷺ.

In the Hadīth of Ibn 'Uyaynah, 'Amr bin Al-Ḥārith and Ibn Ishāq, it mentions 'Āishah, Ḥafṣah and Zainab [may Allāh be pleased with them] setting up tents for I'tikâf.

Chapter 22. It Is Permissible To Base One's Intention For Ihrâm On The Intention Of Another

[2957] 154 - (1221) It was narrated that Abû Mûsâ said: "I came to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ while he was halting in Al-Baṭhâ', and he said to me: 'Did you intend to perform Hajj?' I said: 'Yes.' He said: 'For what did you enter Ihrâm?' I said: 'I said: "Here I am at Your service, for the same as the Prophet ﷺ has entered Ihrâm.'" He said: 'You have done well. Circumambulate the House and go between Aş-Şafâ and Al-Marwah, then exit Ihrâm.' I circumambulated the Ka'bah and went between Aş-Şafâ and Al-Marwah, then I came to a woman of Banû Qais who rid my head of lice. Then I entered Ihrâm for Hajj. I continued to state Fatwa (religious rulings) to that effect for the people until the Khilâfah of 'Umar [may Allâh be pleased with them]."

A man said to him: "O Abû Mûsâ," or: "O 'Abdullâh bin Qais, exercise restraint in your Fatwa, for you do not know what the Commander of the Believers has introduced with regard to the rituals after you." He said: "O people, whoever heard a Fatwa

Chapter 29. Clarifying That The Pilgrim Who Has Entered Ihrâm For 'Umrah Should Not Exit Ihrâm After Performing Tawâf Before Sa'î; And The Pilgrim Who Has Entered Ihrâm For Hajj Should Not Exit Ihrâm After Performing Tawâf Al-Qudûm, And The Same Applies To The Pilgrim Performing Qirân

[2999] 189 - (1234) It was narrated that 'Amr bin Dinâr said: "We asked Ibn 'Umar about a man who comes to perform 'Umrah and he circumambulates the House but he does not go between Aş-Şafâ and Al-Marwah - can he have intercourse with his wife?" He said: "The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ came and circumambulated the House seven times, and he prayed two Rak'ah behind the Maqâm, and he went between Aş-Şafâ and Al-Marwah seven times, and you have the best example in the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ."

If he says to you that he should not exit Ihrâm, tell him: ‘There is a man who says that it may be done.’” He said: “I asked him, and he said: ‘The one who has entered Ihrâm for Hajj cannot exit Ihrâm except by completing Hajj.’ I said: ‘There is a man who says that it may be done.’ He said: ‘What a bad thing he has said.’ Then that man met me and asked me, and I told him. He said: ‘Tell him that a man used to narrate that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ did that, and how come Asmâ’ and Az-Zubair do that?’”

He said: “I went to him and told him that. He said: ‘Who is that?’ I said: ‘I do not know.’ He said: ‘Why doesn’t he come to me himself and ask me? I think he is an ‘Irâqî.’ I said: ‘I do not know.’ He said: ‘He is lying. [3009] 198 - (1240) It was narrated that Ibn 'Abbâs [may Allâh be pleased with them] said: "They used to think that 'Umrah during the months of Hajj was one of the greatest evils on earth, and they would make Muharram Safar.^[1] They would say: 'When the backs of the camels have healed and the tracks of the pilgrims have become erased and Safar is over, 'Umrah becomes permissible for those who want to perform 'Umrah.' Then the Prophet ﷺ and his Companions came on the fourth (of Dhul-Hijjah), reciting the Talbiyah for Hajj, and he told them to make it 'Umrah. This was too hard for them, and they said: 'O Messenger of Allâh, exiting Ihrâm to what extent?' He said: 'Completely.'"

Chapter 43. Clarifying That Sâ'i Between Aş-Şafâ And Al-Marwah Is A Pillar Of Hajj, Without Which Hajj Is Not Valid

[3079] 259 - (1277) It was narrated from Hishâm bin 'Urwah that his father said: "I said to 'Āishah: 'I think that if a man does not go between Aş-Şafâ and Al-Marwah, it does not matter.' She said: 'Why?' I said: 'Because Allâh, the Most High, says: "Verily, Aş-Şafâ and Al-Marwah are of the Symbols of Allâh. So it is not a sin on him who performs Hajj or 'Umrah of the House to perform the going (Tawâf) between them (Aş-Şafâ and Al-Marwah). And whoever does good voluntarily, then verily, Allâh is All-Recogniser, All-Knower".'^[1] She said: 'A person's Hajj or 'Umrah is not complete if he does not go between Aş-Şafâ and Al-Marwah. If it was as you say, then it would be: "It is not a sin on him if he does not go between them." Do you know what that was revealed about? That was revealed about the Anşâr (the People of Yathrib) who during the Jâhiliyyah used to enter Ihrâm for two idols by the sea shore, which were called Isâf and Nâ'ilah. Then they would come and run between Aş-Şafâ

This was revealed concerning some of the Anşâr who, when they entered Ihrâm during the Jâhiliyyah, they entered Ihrâm for Manât, and they thought that it was not permissible for them to go between Aş-Şafâ and Al-Marwah. When they came with the Prophet ﷺ for Hajj, they mentioned that to him, and Allâh, the Mighty and Sublime, revealed this verse. [3257] 412 - (1337) It was narrated that Abû Hurairah said: "The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ addressed us and said: 'O people, Hajj has been enjoined upon you, so perform Hajj.' A man said: 'Is it every year, O Messenger of Allâh?' He remained silent, until the man said it three times. Then the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: 'If I said yes, it would become obligatory, and you would not be able to do it.' Then he said: 'Leave me as I have left you; for those who came before you were doomed because of their questions and differences with their Prophets. [3302] 445 - (1353) It was narrated that Ibn ‘Abbās said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said on the Day of the Conquest of Makkah: ‘There is no Hijrah (emigration), but there is Jihād and intention. And if you are mobilized, then go forth.’ And he said on the day of the Conquest of Makkah: ‘This land was made sacred by Allāh the Day He created the heavens and the earth, so it is sacred by the sanctity decreed by Allāh until the Day of Resurrection. It was not permitted for anyone before me to fight therein and it was only permitted to me for part of a day, and it is sacred by the sanctity decreed by Allāh until the Day of Resurrection. Its thorns are not to be cut, and its game is not to be disturbed, and its lost property is not to be picked up, except by the one who announces it, and its grasses are not to be cut.’ Al-‘Abbās said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh, except Idhkhir (a kind of grass), for it is used by their blacksmiths and in their houses.’ He said: ‘Except Idhkhir.’”

Abû Salamah and Abû 'Abdur-Rahmân said: "We did not doubt that Abû Hurairah was narrating the words of the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, and this kept us from asking him for proof of that Hadîth. Then when Abû Hurairah died, we discussed that and blamed one another for not speaking to Abû Hurairah about that, so that he could have attributed it to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ if he heard it from him. While we were like that, 'Abdullâh bin Ibrâhîm bin Qâriz sat down with us and we told him this Hadîth and how we had neglected to ascertain whether Abû Hurairah was narrating it directly from the Prophet ﷺ. 'Abdullâh bin Ibrâhîm bin Qâriz said to us: 'I bear witness that I heard Abû Hurairah say: "The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: 'I am the last of the Prophets and my Masjid is the last of the Masâjid.'"

Recommended For The One
Who Desires It And Can Afford
It, And The One Who Cannot Afford It Should Distract
Himself By Fasting

(المعجم ١) - (بَابُ اسْتِحْبَابِ النِّكَاحِ)
لَمَنْ تَأَقَّتْ نَفْسُهُ إِلَيْهِ وَوَجَدَ مَوْنَةً،
وَاسْتِغْثَالَ مَنْ عَجَزَ عَنِ الْمَوْنِ بِالصَّوْمِ
(التحفة ١)

[3398] 1 - (1400) It was narrated that 'Alqamah said: "I was walking with 'Abdullāh in Minā when he was met by 'Uthmān. He stood and talked with him and 'Uthmān said to him: 'O Abū 'Abdur-Rahmān, shall we not marry you to a young girl who can remind you of times past?' 'Abdullāh said: 'If that is what you are telling me, (let me tell you that) the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to us: O young men, whoever among you can afford it, let him get married, for it is more effective in lowering the gaze and guarding one's chastity. And whoever cannot afford it should fast, for it will be a shield for him.'"

'Uthmân said to him: 'Shall we not marry you, O Abû 'Abdur-Rahmân, to a young virgin hoping that you might regain some of that which you had in the past?' 'Abdullâh said: 'If you are telling me that...' and he mentioned a Hadîth similar to that of Abû Mu'âwiyah (no. 3398).

[3407] 9 - (1403) It was narrated from Jâbir that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ saw a woman, then he came to his wife Zainab who was tanning a leather, and fulfilled his desire, then he went out to his Companions and said: "A woman comes in the form of a devil and goes in the form of a devil. If one of you sees a woman, let him go to his wife, for that will repel what he feels in his heart."

[3408] (...) It was narrated from Jâbir bin 'Abdullâh that the Prophet ﷺ saw a woman... and he mentioned a similar report (as no. 3407), except that he said: "He came to his wife Zainab who was tanning a leather," and he did not mention (the phrase): "And goes in the form of a devil."

Chapter 3. Mut'ah Marriage: It Was Permitted Then Abrogated, Then Permitted Then Abrogated, And It Will Remain Forbidden Until The Day Of Resurrection

[3410] 11 - (1404) 'Abdullâh said: "We were on a campaign with the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, and we had no women with us. We said: 'Why don't we get ourselves castrated?' But he forbade us to do that, then he granted us a concession allowing us to marry women in return for a garment, for a set period of time." Then 'Abdullâh recited the verse: "O you who believe! defeated them. There fell to the lot of Dihyah a beautiful slave woman, and the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ bought her for seven slaves, then he gave her to Umm Sulaim to prepare her and adorn her for him” - he (the narrator) said: “I think he said: ‘And so that she could observe her Iddah in her house.’”

“That was Safiyyah bint Huyayy. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ made her wedding feast dates, cottage cheese, and cooking fat. Shallow pits were dug in the ground and leather mats were placed in them, and cottage cheese and cooking fat were brought and the people ate their fill. The people said: ‘We do not know if he has married her or taken her as a concubine.’ They said: ‘If he veils her then she is his wife, and if he does not veil her then she is a concubine.’ When he wanted to ride, he veiled her, and she sat on the back of the camel, so they knew that he had married her. When they drew near Al-Madīnah, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sped up and we sped up too. The she-camel Al-Aḍbā’ stumbled and the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ fell, and she (Safiyyah) fell too, then he got up and screened her. The women were looking on and they said: ‘May Allāh keep the Jewess away from us!’”

Anas said: "And I attended the Walimah (wedding feast) of Zainab. The people ate their fill of bread and meat, and he used to send me to invite the people. When he had finished (eating), he got up and I followed him. Two men stayed behind, talking, and they did not leave. He went around to his wives and greeted each one of them, saying: 'Peace be upon you, how are you, O members of the household?' And they would say: 'We are fine, O Messenger of Allāh. How did you find your wife?' And he said: 'Fine.' When he had finished, he went back and I went back with him. When he reached the door, those two men were still there, talking. When they saw that he had come back, they got up and left. By Allāh, I do not know whether I told him or whether it was revealed to him that they had left. So he went back, and I went back with him, and when he put his foot on the threshold of the door he drew the curtain between myself and himself, and Allāh [the Most High] revealed this verse:

"O you who believe! Enter not the Prophet's houses, unless permission is given to you for a meal, (and then) not (so early as) to wait for its preparation. But when you are invited, enter, and

'Iddah of Zainab was over, the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said to Zaid: 'Make mention of me to her (for marriage).' Zaid set out, and came to her when she was adding yeast to her dough. He said: When I saw her, I felt a great deal of respect for her, and I could not look at her, because the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ had mentioned her. So I turned my back on her and stepped backwards, and I said: "O Zainab, the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ has sent a proposal of marriage to you." She said: "I will not do anything until I consult my Lord." Then she went to her prayer place. Then Qur'ân was revealed, and the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ came and entered upon her without permission." He said: "And I remember the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ gave us bread and meat to eat when it was daylight, then the people left, but some men stayed behind in the house, talking after the meal. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ went out and I followed him. He started going around to the apartments of his wives, greeting them, and they said: 'O Messenger of Allâh, how did you find your wife?' I do not know whether I told him that those people had left or he told me. He went and entered the house, and I went to enter with him, but he drew the curtain between myself

The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ came and hung up a curtain and went in, and I was sitting in the apartment. It was not long before he came out to me, and this verse had been revealed. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ went out and recited it to the people: "O you who believe! Enter not the Prophet's houses, unless permission is given to you for a meal, (and then) not (so early as) to wait for its preparation. But when you are invited, enter, and when you have taken your meal, disperse without sitting for a talk. Verily, such (behaviour) annoys the Prophet"^[1]

Anas said: "The Prophet ﷺ said: 'Go and invite for me whoever you meet of the Muslims.' So I invited for him whomever I met. They started coming in, eating, and leaving, and the Prophet ﷺ kept his hand on that food and prayed for blessing for it, saying whatever Allâh willed he should say. I did not leave anyone whom I met but I invited him, and they ate their fill and left, but a few of them stayed behind and chatted at length. The Prophet ﷺ felt too shy to say anything to them, so he went out and left them in the house. Then Allâh [Most High] revealed the words: "O you who believe! Enter not the Prophet's houses, unless permission is given to you for a meal, (and then) not (so early as) to wait for its preparation." - Qatâdah said: "Not waiting for the time for food." - "But when you are invited, enter" until he reached "that is purer for your hearts and for their hearts."^[1]

When the verse: "Call them (adopted sons) by (the names of) their fathers." [Al-Ahzāb 33:5] was revealed, the idea of adoption was abolished and it became hard on them to prevent him from entering upon them because he was like a son to them. So Sahlah asked him about that.

He enters upon us and I think that Abû Hudhaifah feels some (discomfort) in his heart because of that." The Prophet ﷺ said to her: "Breastfeed him and he will be unlawful for you, and what Abû Hudhaifah feels in his heart will disappear." She came back to him and said: "I breastfed him, and what Abû Hudhaifah felt in his heart has disappeared."

He said: 'A virgin or a previously-married woman?' I said: 'A previously-married woman.' He said: 'Why not a girl whom you could play with and she could play with you?' I said: 'I have sisters and I wanted to marry a woman who could keep them together and comb their hair and take care of them.' He said: 'You are going home, and when you arrive, be smart, be smart.' Then he said: 'Will you sell your camel?' I said: 'Yes.' So he bought it from me for an Uqiyah, then the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ arrived and I arrived in the morning. I came to the Masjid and found him at the door of the Masjid. He said: 'Have you just arrived now?' I said: 'Yes.' He said: 'Leave your camel and go inside and pray two Rak'ah.' So I went inside and prayed, then I came back. He told Bilâl to weigh out an Uqiyah for me and Bilâl did that, and added a little more. Then I left, then when I was on my way he said: 'Call Jâbir for me.' I was called and I said: 'Now he will return the camel to me, and there was nothing I disliked more than it.' He said: 'Take your camel, and keep its price for yourself.'"

But I ask you not to tell any of your wives what I have said.' He said: 'None of them will ask, but I will tell her. ‘I said: “I must find out about this today.” So I entered upon ‘Āishah and said: “O daughter of Abû Bakr, have you gone so far that you annoy the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ?” She said: “What have I to do with you, O son of Al-Khaṭṭâb? You should pay attention to your own daughter.” So I entered upon Ḥaṣṣah bint ‘Umar and said to her: “O Ḥaṣṣah, have you gone so far that you annoy the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ? By Allâh you know that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ does not love you, and were it not for me the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ would have divorced you.” She began to weep bitterly, and I said to her: “Where is the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ?” She said: “He is in his store room in the loft.”

I went in and I saw Rabâḥ, the slave of the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, sitting at the threshold of the loft, with his legs dangling on the hollow wood of the tree trunk on which the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ used to climb up and down. I called out: “O Rabâḥ, ask the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ for permission for me to enter.” Rabâḥ looked into the room, then he looked at me and did not say anything. Then I said: “O Rabâḥ, ask the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ for permission for me to enter.” Rabâḥ looked into the room, then he looked at me and saying that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ has divorced his wives. Shall I go down and tell them that you have not divorced them?" He said: "Yes, if you wish." I kept on talking to him until the signs of anger disappeared from his face, and until he began to smile, and he had the most handsome teeth of any people. Then the Prophet of Allâh ﷺ went down and I went down clinging to the tree trunk, while the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ went down as if he was walking on the ground, not holding on with his hand. I said: "O Messenger of Allâh, you were in that room for twenty-nine days."

He said: "The month may be twenty-nine days." I stood at the door of the Masjid and called out at the top of my voice: "The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ has not divorced his wives, and this verse has been revealed: When there comes to them some matter touching (public) safety or fear, they make it known (among the people); if only they had referred it to the Messenger or to those charged with authority among them, the proper investigators would have understood it from them (directly)..."^[1] I understood this matter, and Allâh [the Mighty and Sublime] revealed the verse of choice.

wanted to ask ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb about a verse, but I could not ask him out of respect for him, until he went out for Hajj, and I went with him. When he came back, while we were partway along the road, he went aside to an Arāk tree to relieve himself. I waited until he had finished, then I walked with him and said: ‘O Commander of the Believers, who are the two wives who helped one another against the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ?’ He said: ‘That was Ḥaṣṣah and ‘Āishah.’ I said to him: ‘By Allāh, I wanted to ask you about that for a year but I could not, out of respect for you.’ He said: ‘Do not do that. If you think that I have any knowledge, then ask me about it, and if I know I will tell you.’

And ‘Umar said: ‘By Allāh, during the Jāhiliyyah we had no regard for woman, until Allāh revealed what He revealed concerning them, and allotted to them what He allotted to them. While I was thinking about some matter, my wife said to me: I wish that you had done such-and-such. I said to her: What does it have to do with you? Why are you worried about what I want to do? She said to me: How strange it is, O son of Al-Khaṭṭāb, that you do not want me to argue with you! Your daughter argues with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ until he spends the whole day angry.’”

Umm Salamah said to me: "How strange it is, O son of Al-Khaṭṭâb, that you interfere with everything to such an extent that now you want to intervene between the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and his wives." That astonished me so much that my anger subsided, and I left. I had a friend among the Anṣâr; if I was absent he would bring me the news, and if he was absent, I would bring him the news. At that time we were worried about one of the kings of Ghassân, as we had been told that he wanted to attack us, and our hearts were filled with that (worry).

"The Anṣârî came and knocked at the door, saying: "Open up, open up!" I said: "Has the Ghassânî come?" He said: "It is worse than that. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ has decided to stay away from his wives." I said:

“May the noses of Hafṣah and ‘Āishah be rubbed with dust!” Then I picked up my garment and went out. I came and found the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was in his loft, to which he climbed up via a ladder made of date palm. A black slave of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was at the top of the ladder, and I said: “This is ‘Umar.” I was given permission (to enter) and I told the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ what had happened. When I reached the words of Umm Salamah the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ smiled. He was lying on a reed mat with nothing between him and it, and beneath his head was a pillow of leather, stuffed with palm fibers. At his feet was a pile of Qaraz and by his head there was a hide hanging. I saw the marks of the reed mat on the side of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and I wept. He said: “Why are you weeping?” I said: “O Messenger of Allāh, Kisra and Caesar are living the lives they live, but you are the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ.” The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Does it not please you that this world is for them and the Hereafter is for you?”

He would bring me the news of the Revelation and other things, and I would do likewise. We were saying that Ghassân were shoeing their horses to attack us. My friend went to visit, then he came to me at night and knocked on my door, then he called out to me. I went out to him and he said: “Something terrible has

I thought that this would happen." Then when I had prayed Ṣubḥ, I got dressed, then I went down and entered upon Ḥafṣah, who was weeping. I said: "Has the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ divorced you?" She said: "I do not know. He has secluded himself in this loft." I went to a black slave of his, and I said: "Ask for permission for 'Umar to enter." He went in, then he came out to me and said: "I mentioned you to him but he did not say anything."

He said: "I mentioned you to him but he did not say anything." I turned to leave. Then the slave called me, and he said: "Go in, he has given you permission." He looked up at me and said: "No." I said: "Allâhu Akbar! If you had seen us, O Messenger of Allâh, we the Quraysh, were a people who dominated women, but when we came to Al-Madînah we found a people who were dominated by their women, and our women started to learn from their women. I got angry with my wife one day, and she started to argue with me. I did not like her to argue with me, but she said: "Do you not like me to argue with you? By Allâh, the wives of the Prophet ﷺ argue with him, and one of them will forsake him all day until night comes." I said: "Any one of them who does that is doomed and lost. Does one of them feel assured that Allâh will not be angry with her because of the anger of His Messenger ﷺ, then she will be doomed?" The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ smiled. I said: "O Messenger of Allâh, I entered upon Hafṣah and I said: 'Do not be misled by the fact that your neighbor is more beautiful than you and more beloved to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ than you.'" The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ smiled again."

"I said: "O Messenger of Allâh, may I talk to you freely?" He said: "Yes." So I sat down and looked around the room, and by Allâh, I did not see anything in it to please the eye except three

Chapter 6. The Woman Who Has Been Irrevocably Divorced Is Not Entitled To Maintenance

He said: “By Allâh, you are not entitled to anything from us.” She came to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and told him about that, and he said: “You are not

She said: “When my Iddah ended, I told him that Mu’âwiyah bin Abî Sufyân and Abû Jahm had proposed marriage to me. His people said to her: “You are not entitled to maintenance from us.” Khâlid bin Al-Walîd came with a group of people to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ in the house of Maimûnah and said: “Abû Ḥaṣṣ has divorced his wife three times; is she entitled to

And he sent word to her, saying: "Do not be hasty in making a decision concerning yourself (without consulting me)." He told her to move to (the house of) Umm Sharîk, then he sent word saying: "Umm Sharîk is visited by the first Muhâjirîn. He died during the Farewell Pilgrimage while she was pregnant, and she gave birth shortly after he died. When her Nifâs ended, she adorned herself to receive offers of marriage. Abû As-Sanâbil bin Ba‘kak - a man from Banû ‘Abd Ad-Dâr - entered upon her and said to her: “Why do I see you beautified? Perhaps you are hoping to get married? By Allâh, you will not get married until four months and ten days have passed!” Subai‘ah said: “When he said that to me, I got dressed that evening and went to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and asked him about that. He advised me that my Iddah had ended when I gave birth, and he told me to get married if I wanted to.”

Ibn Shihâb said: “I do not see anything wrong with (a woman) getting married after she has given birth, even if she is still bleeding, but her husband should not come close to her until she becomes pure.”

Ibn 'Abbâs said: "Her 'Iddah is the longer of the two periods." Abû Salamah said: "Her 'Iddah is over." They started to dispute about that. Then Abû Hurairah said: "I am with my nephew" - meaning Abû Salamah. So they sent Kuraib, the freed slave of Ibn 'Abbâs, to Umm Salamah to ask her about that. He came to them and told them that Umm Salamah said: "Subai'ah Al-Aslamiyyah gave birth a few days after her husband died, and she mentioned that to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, who told her to get married."

Chapter 1. A Slave Working To Pay Off The Other Half

(المعجم ١) - (بَابُ ذِكْرِ سَعَايَةِ الْعَبْدِ)
(التحفة ٢)

[3772] 2 - (1502) It was narrated from Abû Hurairah, that the Prophet ﷺ said concerning a slave who is owned by two men, one of whom manumits (his share): "He is responsible (for manumitting the other share)."

[٣٧٧٢] ٢ - (١٥٠٢) وَحَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ ابْنُ الْمُثَنَّى وَابْنُ بَشَّارٍ - وَاللَّفْظُ لِابْنِ الْمُثَنَّى - قَالَا: حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ جَعْفَرٍ: حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ قَتَادَةَ، عَنِ النَّضْرِ بْنِ أَنَسٍ، عَنْ بَشِيرِ بْنِ نَهْيِكَ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَالَ -: فِي الْمَمْلُوكِ بَيْنَ الرَّجُلَيْنِ، فَيُعْتَقُ أَحَدُهُمَا قَالَ -: «يُضْمَنُ». [انظر: ٤٣٣١]

[3773] 3 - (1503) It was narrated from Abû Hurairah that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Whoever manumits his share of a slave, let him manumit him completely with his own wealth if he has wealth, and if he does not have wealth, let the slave work for his manumission, without being overburdened."

[٣٧٧٣] ٣ - (١٥٠٣) وَحَدَّثَنِي عَمْرُو النَّاقِدُ: حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ عَنِ ابْنِ أَبِي عُرْوَةَ، عَنْ قَتَادَةَ، عَنِ النَّضْرِ بْنِ أَنَسٍ، عَنْ بَشِيرِ بْنِ نَهْيِكَ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَالَ: «مَنْ أَعْتَقَ شِقْصًا لَهُ فِي عَبْدٍ، فَخَلَّاهُ فِي مَالِهِ إِنْ كَانَ لَهُ مَالٌ، فَإِنْ لَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُ مَالٌ،

Chapter 2. Al-Walâ' (Right Of Inheritance) Belongs To The One Who Manumits The Slave

[3776] 5 - (1504) It was narrated from 'Āishah that she wanted to buy a slave woman and manumit her, and her masters said: "We will sell her on condition that the right of inheritance (Al-Walâ') remains ours." She mentioned that to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and he said: "Do not let that stop you, for the right of inheritance belongs to the one who manumits (the slave)."

[3777] 6 - (...) It was narrated from 'Urwah that 'Āishah told him that Barîrah came to her seeking her help with her contract of manumission, as she had not paid off anything stipulated in her contract of manumission. 'Āishah said to her: "Go back to your masters, and if they like, I will pay off your contract of manumission on your behalf, and the right of inheritance (Al-Walâ) will be mine, then I will do it." Barîrah mentioned that to her masters, but they refused and said: "If she wishes to do that for you, seeking reward with Allâh, then let her do it, but the right of inheritance will be ours." She ('Āishah) mentioned that to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said to her: "Buy her and manumit her, for the right of inheritance belongs to the one who manumits (the slave)." Then the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ stood up and said: "What is the matter with people who stipulate conditions that are not in the Book of Allâh? Whoever stipulates a condition that is not in the Book of Allâh has no right, even if he stipulates a hundred times. The conditions stipulated by Allâh are more valid and carry more weight."

Their voices became so loud that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ could hear them in his house. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ came out to them and lifted the curtain of his apartment, and he called Ka‘b bin Mâlik, saying: “O Ka‘b!” Ka‘b said: “Here I am, O Messenger of Allâh.” He gestured with his hand, saying waive half of your debt. Chapter 6. The Virtue Of Giving More Time To One Who Is Suffering Difficulty, And Letting Those Go Who Are Suffering Difficulty And Those Who Are Well Off

[3993] 26 - (1560) Hudhaifah said: "The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: 'The angels took the soul of a man among those who came before you and they said: 'Did you do any good deeds?' He said: 'No.' They said: 'Try to remember.' He said: 'I used to lend money to people and I would tell my servants to give more time to those who were in difficulty and to be easy with those who were well off.' (The angel) said: Allâh said (to us): 'Be easy with him.'"

[3994] 27 - (...) It was narrated that Rib'î bin Hirâsh said: Hudhaifah and Abû Mas'ûd met, and Hudhaifah said: "A man met his Lord, may He be glorified and exalted, and He said: 'What did you do?' He said: 'Let My slave go.'" Abû Mas'ûd said: "That is what I heard the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ saying."

Chapter 20. Taking That Which Is Lawful And Leaving That Which Is Unclear

[4094] 107 - (1599) It was narrated that An-Nu'mân bin Bashîr said: "The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said - and An-Nu'mân pointed with his fingers to his ears - "That which is lawful is clear and that which is unlawful is clear, and between them are matters which are unclear which many people do not understand. Whoever guards against the unclear matters, he will protect his religion and his honor, but whoever falls into that which is unclear, he will soon fall into that which is unlawful. Like a shepherd who grazes his flock around the sanctuary; he will soon graze in it. Verily, every king has his prohibited land and verily, the prohibited land of Allâh is that which He has forbidden. In the body there is a piece of flesh which, if it is healthy, the entire body will be healthy but if it is corrupt, the entire body will be corrupt. Verily it is the heart."

[4209] 5 - (1628) It was narrated from 'Âmir bin Sa'd that his father said: "The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ visited me during the Farewell Pilgrimage, when I fell sick with a sickness that brought me close to death. I said: 'O Messenger of Allâh, you can see how bad my sickness is, and I am wealthy, and no one will inherit from me except one daughter of mine. Can I give two-thirds of my wealth in charity?' He said: 'No.' I said: 'Can I give half of it in charity?' He said: 'No. (Give) one-third, and one-third is a lot. If you leave your heirs rich and wealthy, that is better for them than leaving them dependent and asking from people. Chapter 3. What Reward Reaches A Man After His Death

[4223] 14 - (1631) It was narrated from Abū Hurairah that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "When a man dies, all his good deeds come to an end except three: Ongoing charity, beneficial knowledge, or a righteous son who will pray for him."

(المعجم ٣) - (بَابُ مَا يَلْحَقُ الْإِنْسَانَ

من الثواب بعد وفاته) (التحفة ٤)

[٤٢٢٣] ١٤ - (١٦٣١) حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى
ابْنُ أَيُّوبَ وَقُتَيْبَةُ يَعْنِي ابْنَ سَعِيدٍ وَابْنُ
حُجْرٍ قَالُوا: حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ بْنُ جَعْفَرٍ
عَنِ الْعَلَاءِ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ؛
أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ: «إِذَا مَاتَ
الْإِنْسَانُ انْقَطَعَ عَنْهُ عَمَلُهُ إِلَّا مِنْ ثَلَاثَةٍ:
إِلَّا مِنْ صَدَقَةٍ جَارِيَةٍ، أَوْ عِلْمٍ يُنْتَفَعُ بِهِ،
أَوْ وَلَدٍ صَالِحٍ يَدْعُو لَهُ».

Chapter 4. Waqf (Endowment)

[4224] 15 - (1632) It was narrated that Ibn 'Umar said: "Umar was given a share of land in Khaibar, and he came to the Prophet ﷺ to consult him about it. He said: 'O Messenger of Allāh, I have been given a share of land at Khaibar and I have never been given any wealth that is more precious to me than it.

What do you command me to do with it?" He said: "If you wish, you can 'freeze' it and give it in charity." So 'Umar gave it in charity and stipulated that it was not to be sold, given as a gift or inherited, and he gave it in charity to the poor, relatives and slaves, for the cause of Allāh and for wayfarers and guests; and there was no sin on the one appointed to look after it if he ate from it on a reasonable basis, and fed a friend without storing anything for the future."

He said:^[1] "I narrated this Ḥadīth to Muḥammad, when I reached the words "without storing anything for the future," Muḥammad said: Without storing it with a view to becoming rich.

Ibn 'Awn said: "The one who read this book, he told me, that in it are the words: 'Without storing it with a view to becoming rich.'"

[4225] (...) A similar report (as no. 4224) was narrated from Ibn 'Awn with this chain, except that in the Ḥadīth of Ibn Abī Zā'idah and Azhar it ends at the words: "And feed a friend without storing anything for the future." And he did not mention what comes after that. The Ḥadīth of Ibn Abī 'Adiyy includes what is mentioned by Sulaim: "I narrated this Ḥadīth to Muḥammad..."

[1] That is Ibn 'Awn, the narrator and the Muḥammad is Ibn Sîrîn.

[4226] (1633) It was narrated from Ibn 'Umar that 'Umar said: "I was given a share of the land of Khaibar, and I came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and said: 'I have been given a share of the land of Khaibar, and I have never acquired any wealth that is dearer to me or more precious than that...' and he quoted a similar Hadīth (as no. 4224), but he did not mention (the words): "I narrated it to Muḥammad," and what comes after that.

Chapter 5. Not Making A Will For One Who Has Nothing To Be Bequeathed

[4227] 16 - (1634) It was narrated that Ṭalḥah bin Musārrif said: "I asked 'Abdullāh bin Abī Awfa: 'Did the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ leave a will?' He said: 'No.' I said: 'Why is making a will prescribed for the Muslims, or why are they commanded to make wills?' He said: 'His final guidance was adherence to the Book of Allāh.'"

He said: 'The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ took a turn for the worse, and he said: "Come to me and I will dictate for you a document, so you will not go astray after I am gone." But they argued (about that), and it is not appropriate to argue in the presence of a Prophet. They said: "What is the matter with him? Is he delirious? ‘Umar said: “By Allâh, I have not sworn by them since I heard the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ forbid that, whether on my own behalf or narrating it from someone else.”

Abû Al-Huşain Muslim said: This phrase - meaning: "Come, I will gamble with you" - was not narrated by anyone except Az-Zuhrî. Az-Zuhrî had approximately ninety phrases which he narrated from the Prophet ﷺ and no one else narrated them with any reliable chain of narrators.

Chapter 3. It Is Recommended For The One Who Swears An Oath Then Sees That Something Else Is Better Than It, To Do That Which Is Better And Offer Expiation For His Oath

[4263] 7 - (1649) It was narrated that Abû Mûsâ Al-Asha'ri said: "I came to the Prophet ﷺ among a group of the Asha'ris to ask him for mounts. He said: 'By Allâh, I will not give you mounts, and I do not have anything to give you as mounts.' As much time as Allâh willed passed, then some camels were brought, and he ordered that we be given three camels with white humps. When we set out we said" - or "we said to one another" - 'Allâh will not bless us. We came to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ to ask him for mounts and he swore that he would not give us mounts, then he gave us mounts.'" So they went to him and told him, and he said: "It was not me who gave you mounts, rather Allâh gave you mounts. By Allâh, if Allâh wills, I do not swear an oath then see something better than that, but I expiate my oath and do that which is better."

I said: 'O Prophet of Allāh, my companions have sent me to you, so that you might give them mounts.' He said: 'By Allāh, I will not give you anything to ride.' It so happened that I came to him when he was angry and I did not realize it. So I went back saddened by the refusal of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and I was worried that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was upset with me. So I went back to my companions and told them what the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ had said. Only a short time passed, then I heard Bilāl calling: 'O 'Abdullāh bin Qais!' So I answered him, and he said: 'Go to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, he is calling you.' When I came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, he said: 'Take this pair and this pair and this pair' - six camels that he had bought from Sa'd at that time. 'Take them to your companions and say: "Allāh" - or "the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ" - has provided you with these mounts so ride them."

Chapter 5. Saying: "If Allâh wills" When Swearing Oaths And At Other Times

[4285] 22 - (1654) It was narrated that Abû Hurairah said: "Sulaimân had sixty women and he said: 'I will go around to all of them tonight, and each of them will become pregnant, and each of them will give birth to a boy who will become a knight who will fight in the cause of Allâh.

(المعجم ٥) - (بَابُ الْإِسْتِثْنَاءِ فِي الْيَمِينِ وَغَيْرِهَا) (التحفة ١٠)

[٤٢٨٥] ٢٢ - (١٦٥٤) وَحَدَّثَنِي أَبُو الرَّبِيعِ الْعَتَكِيُّ وَأَبُو كَامِلٍ الْجَحْدَرِيُّ فَضَيْلُ بْنُ حُسَيْنٍ - وَاللَّفْظُ لِأَبِي الرَّبِيعِ - قَالَا: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَادٌ - وَهُوَ ابْنُ زَيْدٍ - : حَدَّثَنَا أَيُّوبُ عَنْ مُحَمَّدٍ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: كَانَ لِسُلَيْمَانَ سِتُّونَ امْرَأَةً، فَقَالَ:

But none of them became pregnant except one, who gave birth to an malformed child.” The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “If he had said: ‘If Allāh wills,’ each of them would have given birth to a boy who would become a knight who would fight in the cause of Allāh.”

لَا طُوفَ عَلَيْهِنَّ اللَّيْلَةُ، فَتَحْمِلُ كُلُّ وَاحِدَةٍ مِنْهُنَّ، فَلِدُّ كُلُّ وَاحِدَةٍ مِنْهُنَّ غُلَامًا فَارِسًا، يُقَاتِلُ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ، فَلَمْ تَحْمِلْ مِنْهُنَّ إِلَّا وَاحِدَةً، فَوَلَدَتْ نِصْفَ إِنْسَانٍ، فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «لَوْ كَانَ اسْتَشْتَى، لَوَلَدَتْ كُلُّ وَاحِدَةٍ مِنْهُنَّ غُلَامًا فَارِسًا، يُقَاتِلُ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ».

[4286] 23 - (...) It was narrated from Abû Hurairah that the Prophet ﷺ said: “Sulaimân bin Dâwûd, the Prophet of Allāh, said: ‘Tonight I will go around to seventy women, each of whom will give birth to a boy who will fight in the cause of Allāh.’ His companion, or the Angel, said: ‘Say: “If Allāh wills.”’ But he did not say it, or he was caused to forget, and none of his women gave birth to a child except one, who gave birth to a deformed child.” The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “If he had said: ‘If Allāh wills,’ he would not have broken his oath, and that would have been a means of attaining what he hoped for.”

[٤٢٨٧] (...) حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ أَبِي عُمَرَ: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ، عَنْ أَبِي الزُّنَادِ، عَنِ الْأَعْرَجِ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ. مِثْلَهُ أَوْ نَحْوَهُ.

The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: "If he had said 'If Allâh wills,' he would not have broken his oath, and that could have been a means of fulfilling his wish."

[4289] 25 - (...) It was narrated from Abû Hurairah that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Sulaimân bin Dâwûd said: 'Tonight I will go around to ninety women, and each of them will give birth to a knight who will fight in the cause of Allâh.' His companion said to him: 'Say "If Allâh wills."' But he did not say 'If Allâh wills,' and he went round to all of them. None of them became pregnant except one woman, who gave birth to a deformed child. By the One in Whose Hand is the soul of Muḥammad, if he had said 'If Allâh wills,' they would all have been knights, striving in the cause of Allâh."

[4290] (...) A similar report (as no. 4289) was narrated from Abû Az-Zinnâd with this chain, except that he said: "They all would have borne a boy who would strive in the cause of Allâh, may He be exalted."

Chapter 6. The Prohibition Of Persisting In An Oath That Will Harm The Family Of The One Who Swears It, So Long As Not Persisting In It Does Not Involve Anything Unlawful

[4291] 26 - (1655) It was narrated that Hammâm bin Munabbih said: "This is what Abû Hurairah narrated to us from the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ." He mentioned a number of Aḥādīth including the following: "The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: 'By Allâh, if one of you persist in an oath concerning his family, that is more sinful before Allâh than offering the expiation that has been enjoined by Allâh.'"

Chapter 7. The Vow Of A Disbeliever, And What He Should Do About It If He Becomes A Muslim

[4292] 27 - (1656) It was narrated from Ibn 'Umar that 'Umar said: "O Messenger of Allâh, during the Jâhiliyyah I vowed that I would spend a night in I'tikâf in Al-Masjid Al-Ḥarâm." He said: "Fulfill your vow."

[4338] 58 - (997) It was narrated from Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh that a man among the Anṣâr declared that a slave of his would become free after he died, and he did not own any other wealth apart from the slave. News of that reached the Prophet ﷺ and he said: “Who will buy him from me?” Nu’aim bin ‘Abdullâh bought him for a price of eight hundred Dirham, and he gave it to him.

‘Amr said: “I heard Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh say: ‘He was a Coptic slave who died last year.’”

[4342] 1 - (1669) It was narrated from Sahl bin Abi Ḥathmah - Yaḥyâ said: "I think he said: 'And from Râfi' bin Khadîj'" - that they said: "'Abdullâh bin Sahl bin Zaid and Muḥaiṣah bin Mas'ûd bin Zaid went out, and when they were in Khaibar they parted. Then Muḥaiṣah found 'Abdullâh bin Sahl slain, so he buried him. Then he came to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ along with Ḥuwaiṣah bin Mas'ûd and 'Abdur-Raḥmân bin Sahl, who was the youngest of the people. 'Abdur-Raḥmân began to speak before his two companions, and the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said to him: 'Let the eldest speak.' So he fell silent and his two companions spoke, and he spoke with them. They told the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ about the killing of 'Abdullâh bin

 ابْنُ سَهْلِ، وَكَانَ أَصْغَرَ الْقَوْمِ، فَذَهَبَ
 عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ لِيَتَكَلَّمَ قَبْلَ صَاحِبَيْهِ، فَقَالَ
 لَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «كَبِّرْ» - الْكُبْرَ فِي

[1] Muḥâribîn: These are aggressors who transgress against society or the legitimate state, as mentioned in the Verse: "The recompense of those who wage war against Allâh and His Messenger and do mischief in the land is only that they shall be killed or crucified or their hands and their feet be cut off from opposite sides, or be exiled from the land. That is their disgrace in this world, and a great torment is theirs in the Hereafter" [Al-Mâ'idah 5:33]

Sahl, and he said to them: 'Will you swear fifty times so that you may be entitled to (blood money) for your companion?' They said: 'How can we swear when we did not witness (what happened)?' He said: 'Then let the Jews swear fifty oaths that they are innocent.' They said: 'How can we accept the oaths of a disbelieving people?' When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ saw that, he paid the blood money himself."

[4343] 2 - (...) It was narrated from Sahl bin Mas'ūd and Rāfi' bin Khadīj, that Muḥaiṣah bin Mas'ūd and 'Abdullāh bin Sahl went to Khaibar, where they parted among the palm trees. 'Abdullāh bin Sahl was killed, and they accused the Jews. His brother 'Abdur-Raḥmān and his two cousins Ḥuwaiṣah, and Muḥaiṣah, came to the Prophet ﷺ and 'Abdur-Raḥmān began to speak about his brother, but he was the youngest of them, so the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "Let the eldest speak" or he ﷺ said "Let the eldest speak first." So they spoke about their companion's case, and the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "Let fifty of you swear against one of them, then he will be handed over to you." They said: "It is something that we did not witness; how can we swear?" He said: "Then let the Jews swear fifty oaths that they are innocent."

[٤٣٤٣] ٢- (...) وَحَدَّثَنَا عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عُمَرَ الْقَوَارِيرِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَادُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ سَعِيدٍ عَنْ بُشَيْرِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ، عَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ أَبِي حَثْمَةَ وَرَافِعِ بْنِ خَدِيجٍ: أَنَّ مُحَيِّصَةَ بِنْتُ مَسْعُودٍ وَعَبْدُ اللَّهِ ابْنَ سَهْلٍ انْطَلَقَا قَبْلَ خَبِيرٍ، فَتَفَرَّقَا فِي النَّحْلِ، فَقَتَلَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ سَهْلٍ، فَاتَّهَمُوا الْيَهُودَ، فَجَاءَ أَخُوهُ عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ وَابْنَا عَمِّهِ حُوَيْصَةُ وَمُحَيِّصَةُ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ ﷺ فَتَكَلَّمَ عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ فِي أَمْرِ أَخِيهِ، وَهُوَ أَضْعَرُّ مِنْهُمْ، فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «كَبِّرِ الْكُبْرَ» أَوْ قَالَ: «لِيَبْدَأَ الْأَكْبَرُ» فَتَكَلَّمَا فِي أَمْرِ صَاحِبِهِمَا، فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «يُقْسِمُ خَمْسُونَ مِنْكُمْ عَلَى رَجُلٍ مِنْهُمْ فَيَذْفَعُ بِرَمْتِهِ؟» قَالُوا: أَمْرٌ لَمْ نَشْهَدْهُ كَيْفَ نَحْلِفُ؟ قَالَ: «فَتُبْرئُكُمْ يَهُودُ بِأَيْمَانِ

They said: "O Messenger of Allâh, they are a disbelieving people." So the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ paid the blood money himself.

Sahl said: "I entered a Mirbad (camel pen) of theirs one day, and a she-camel among those camels (that were given as blood money) kicked me."

[4344] (...) A similar report (as no. 4343) was narrated from Sahl bin Abî Ḥaṭmah from the Prophet ﷺ, and in his Hadîth he said: "The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ paid the blood money himself," but he did not say in his Hadîth: "A she-camel kicked me."

At that time there was a peace treaty, and its people were Jews. They parted to go about

The brother of the slain man, ‘Abdur-Raḥmân bin Sahl, along with Muḥaiṣah and Ḥuwaṣah, went and told the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ about ‘Abdullâh, and where he was killed. Bushair, who narrated this Hadīth from one of the Companions of the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ whom he met, said that he (ﷺ) said to them: “Will you swear fifty oaths so that you will be entitled to the blood money?” They said: “O Messenger of Allâh, we did not witness anything and we were not present.” And he said, that he (ﷺ) said: “Will you let the Jews swear fifty times that they are innocent?” They said: “O Messenger of Allâh, how can we accept the oaths of a disbelieving people?” Bushair said that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ paid the blood money himself.

It was narrated from Bushair bin Yasâr, that an Anṣarī man from Banû Ḥārithah who was called ‘Abdullâh bin Sahl bin Zaid, went with a cousin of his who was called Muḥaiṣah bin Mas‘ûd bin Zaid... and he quoted a Hadīth like that of Al-Laiṭh, up to the words: “And the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ paid the blood money himself.”

He (the narrator) said: I narrated it to Sa'eed bin Jubair and he said: He turned him away four times.

[4427] 19 - (1693) It was narrated from Ibn 'Abbâs that the Prophet ﷺ said to Mâ'iz bin Mâlik: "Is it true what I have heard about you?" He said: "What have you heard about me?" He said: "I heard that you committed Zinâ with the slave woman of the family of so-and-so." He said: "Yes." He (the narrator) said: "He testified to that four times, then he (ﷺ) ordered that he be stoned."

[4428] 20 - (1694) It was narrated from Abû Sa'eed that a man from Aslam who was called Mâ'iz bin Mâlik came to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and said: "I have committed an immoral deed, carry out (the punishment) on me." The Prophet ﷺ turned him away (from him) several times, then he asked his people about him, and they said: "We do not know of anything wrong with him, except that he has done something, and we think that he feels there is no way out except having the Hadd punishment carried out on him." He went back to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, and he commanded us to stone him. We took him to Baqî' Al-Gharqad, and we did not tie him up or dig a pit for him. We threw bones, clods of earth and pebbles at him, and he ran away, so we ran after him, until he reached the stony ground of the Harrah. He stopped there for us, and we threw the heavy stones of the Harrah at him until he stopped moving. Then the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ stood up and delivered a speech in the evening and said: "Every time we went out on a campaign for the sake of Allâh, a man would stay behind amongst our families and bleat like a male goat. It is my duty, if a man who has done that is brought to me, to make an example of him." And he (ﷺ) did not pray for forgiveness for him or curse him.

The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ asked, 'Is he insane?' and he was told that he was not insane. He said: Has he drunk wine? A man got up and smelt his breath, and he did not find any smell of wine. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: 'Did you commit Zinâ?' He said: 'Yes.' So he ordered that he be stoned. The people were of two minds about him. Some said: 'He is doomed, he has been encompassed by his sin.' Others said: 'There is no repentance better than that of Mâ'iz; he came to the Prophet ﷺ and put his hand in his, and said: Kill me with stones.' This (controversy) carried on for two or three days, then the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ came when they were sitting. He greeted them with Salâm then sat down, and said: 'Pray for forgiveness for Mâ'iz bin Mâlik.' They said: 'May Allâh forgive Mâ'iz bin Mâlik.' The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: 'He has repented in such a way that if it were to be divided among a nation it would be sufficient for them.'"

They brought it and read it, and when they reached the Verse of stoning, the person who was reading placed his hand over the Verse of stoning and read that which came before it and that which came after it. 'Abdullâh bin Salâm - who was with the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ - said to him: "Tell him to lift his hand," so he lifted it, and there beneath it was the Verse of stoning. So the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ ordered that they be stoned."

"'Abdullâh bin 'Umar said: 'I was among those who stoned them, and I saw him shielding her from the stones with his body.'"

[4438] 27 - (...) It was narrated from Ibn 'Umar that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ stoned two Jews, a man and a woman, for Zinâ. The Jews brought them to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ... and he quoted a similar Hadîth (as no. 4437).

He said: "No. Had you not adjured me (by Allâh), I would not have told you. We find (that the punishment) is stoning, but it became common among our nobles, so, if we caught a noble we would let him go, but if we caught a lowly person we would carry out the punishment on him. We said: Come, let us agree on something that we can impose on noble and lowly alike. So we made (the punishment of) blackening of the face and whipping instead of stoning." [4517] 18 - (1728) It was narrated that Abû Sa'eed Al-Khudrî said: Whilst we were on a journey with the Prophet ﷺ, a man came to him on a mount of his and started looking to his right and left. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: "Whoever has a surplus mount, let him give it to one who has no mount, and whoever has surplus provisions, let him give them to one who has no provisions."

He mentioned various kinds of wealth, until we thought that none of us had any right to any kind of surplus.

campaign, and we faced hardship, so much so that we thought of slaughtering some of our mounts. The Prophet of Allâh ﷺ ordered us to gather together our provisions, then we spread out a sheet of leather and he gathered together the people's provisions on that leather sheet. I measured it and found that it was the size of a spot where a goat could sit, and we were fourteen hundred men. We ate until we were all had our hunger satisfied, then we filled our bags. The Prophet of Allâh ﷺ said: "Is there any water for Wudû?" A man brought a small bucket in which there was a drop of water, and poured it into a bowl. We all did Wudû, using water plentifully, fourteen hundred men.

Then after that eight men came and said: Is there any water for Wudû? And the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: "(The water for) Wudû' is finished."

[4519] 1 - (1730) It was narrated that Ibn 'Awn said: I wrote to Nâfi' asking him about calling people (to Islam) before fighting. He wrote back to me (saying): That was only at the beginning of Islam. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ raided Banû Al-Muṣṭaliq when they were unaware, and their cattle were drinking at the water. He killed their warriors and took their women and children captive. On that day - Yaḥyâ said: I think he said - Juwayriyah, the daughter of Al-Hârith, fell to his lot.

He said: And 'Abdullâh bin 'Umar narrated this Hadîth to me, and he was one of that army.

[4555] 32 - (1747) It was narrated that Hammām bin Munabbih said: This is what Abū Hurairah narrated from the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and he mentioned a number of Aḥadīth, including the following: The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "One of the Prophets went out on a campaign, and he said to his people: No man should accompany me who has gotten married and wants to consummate the marriage but has not yet done so, or a man who has built a house but has not yet put the roof on, or a man who has bought some sheep or pregnant she-camels and is waiting for them to give birth. He went out to fight, and he approached a town at the time of ʿAsr prayer, or close to that time. He said to the sun: You are under the command of Allāh and I am under the command of Allāh. O Allāh, halt it for me for a while." So it was halted for him until Allāh granted him victory.

[٤٥٥٥] ٣٢ - (١٧٤٧) وَحَدَّثَنَا أَبُو كُرَيْبٍ مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْعَلَاءِ: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ الْمُبَارَكِ عَنْ مَعْمَرٍ؛ وَحَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ رَافِعٍ - وَاللَّفْظُ لَهُ - : حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّزَّاقِ: أَخْبَرَنَا مَعْمَرٌ عَنْ هَمَّامِ بْنِ مُنَبِّهٍ قَالَ: هَذَا مَا حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ، فَذَكَرَ أَحَادِيثَ مِنْهَا: وَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «غَرَا نَبِيٌّ مِنَ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ، فَقَالَ لِقَوْمِهِ: لَا يَتَّبِعْنِي رَجُلٌ قَدْ مَلَكَ بُضْعَ امْرَأَةٍ، وَهُوَ يُرِيدُ أَنْ يَنْبِيَّ بِهَا، وَلَمَّا يَبْنِ، وَلَا آخَرَ قَدْ بَنَى بُيْتَانًا، وَلَمَّا يَرْفَعْ سُفْفَهَا، وَلَا آخَرَ قَدْ اشْتَرَى غَنَمًا أَوْ خِلْفَاتٍ، وَهُوَ مُسْتَظِرٌّ وَلَادَهَا، قَالَ: فَعَرَا، فَأَدْنَى لِلْمَقَرَّةِ حِينَ صَلَاةِ الْعَصْرِ، أَوْ قَرِيبًا مِنْ ذَلِكَ، فَقَالَ لِلشَّمْسِ: أَنْتِ مَأْمُورَةٌ وَأَنَا مَأْمُورٌ، اللَّهُمَّ احْسِنَا عَلَى شَيْئًا فَحُسِبَتْ عَلَيْهِ حَتَّى فَتَحَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ، قَالَ: فَجَمَعُوا مَا غَنِمُوا، فَأَقْبَلَتِ النَّارُ

They gathered the booty that they had seized, and the fire came close to consume it, but it did not touch it. He said: "There is theft from the booty among you. Let one man from each tribe swear allegiance to me." They swore allegiance to him, and the hand of one man stuck to his hand. He said: "There is theft from the booty among you. Let your tribe swear allegiance to me." They swore allegiance to him, and the hands of two or three men stuck to his hand. He said: "There is theft from the booty among you; you have stolen from the booty." They brought forth to him gold equal to the size of a cow's head. They placed it with the wealth which was on the ground, then the fire came and consumed it. The booty was not permissible for anyone before us, but Allâh (blessed and exalted is He) saw our weakness and vulnerability, so He permitted it to us.

Chapter 13. The Killer Is Entitled To The Belongings Of The One Who Is Killed

[4566] 41 - (1751) It was narrated that Abû Muḥammad Al-Anṣârî, who was a companion of Abû Qatâdah, said: Abû Qatâdah said... and he narrated the same Hadîth as no. 4568).

[4567] (...) It was narrated from Abû Muḥammad, the freed slave of Abû Qatâdah, that Abû Qatâdah said... and he quoted the Hadîth (as no. 4568).

[4568] (...) It was narrated that Abû Qatâdah said: We set out with the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ in the year of (the battle of) Hunain, and when we met (the enemy), the Muslims fell into a state of confusion. I saw that one of the Mushrik men had overpowered one of the Muslim men, so I crept up on him from behind and struck him between his neck and shoulders. He turned around and he grabbed me in such a way that I thought I was about to die, then he died. I joined 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭâb and he said: What is the matter with the people?

I said: It is the decree of Allāh. Then the people came back, and the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sat down and said: "Whoever killed someone has to bring his proof, then he may take his belongings." I stood up and said: Who will bear witness for me? Then I sat down. Then he (ﷺ) said likewise, and I stood up and said: Who will bear witness for me? Then I sat down. Then he (ﷺ) said that a third time and I stood up again. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "What is the matter with you, O Abû Qatādah?" I told him the story and a man who was there said: He has spoken the truth, O Messenger of Allāh. The belongings of that dead man are with me; persuade him to give up his right. Abû Bakr Aṣ-Ṣiddîq said: No, by Allāh, you should not expect one of the lions of Allāh who fought for Allāh and His Messenger to give up his booty to you. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "He is right; give it to him." So he gave it to me. I sold the shield and bought a garden in Banû Salimah, and that was the first property I acquired in Islam.

According to the Hadīth of Al-Laiṭh: Abû Bakr said: No, he will not give it to a little hyena from Quraish and ignore one of the lions of Allāh.

[4569] 42 - (1752) It was narrated that ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin ‘Awf said: Whilst I was standing in the ranks on the Day of Badr, I looked to my right and my left, and I saw that I was between two boys of the Anṣâr who were very young. I wished that I was standing between two who were stronger than them. One of them gestured to me and said: O uncle, do you know Abû Jahl? I said: Yes; what do you want with him, O son of my brother? He said: I have been told that he reviles the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ. By the One in Whose Hand is my soul, if I see him I will not leave him until the one of us who is destined to die first is dead. I was impressed by that. Then the other one gestured to me and said something similar. It was not long before I saw Abû Jahl moving about among the people. I said (to the boys): Do you not see? This is your companion about whom you were asking. They hastened towards him and struck him with their swords until they killed him. Then they went to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and told him. He (ﷺ) said: “Which of you killed him?” Each of them said: I killed him. He said: “Have you wiped your swords yet?” They said: No. So he (ﷺ) looked at their swords then he said: “Both of you killed him.” And he gave his (Abû Jahl’s) belongings

He said: “Give it to him.” ‘Awf pulled on Khālīd’s cloak (as a rebuke), then he said: Didn’t I tell you that I was going to go to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ? The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ heard him and became angry, and said: “Do not give him anything, O Khālīd! Do not give him anything, O Khālīd! Won’t you leave my commanders alone? The likeness of you and them is that of a man who takes camels and sheep out for grazing, and he grazes them, then when the time comes to water them, he brings them to the tank and they start to drink, and they drink the clear water and leave the stagnant

Chapter 14. Additional Rewards, And Ransoming Muslims In Return For Prisoners

[4573] 46 - (1755) Iyâs bin Salamah said: My father told me: We attacked Fazârah, and Abû Bakr was in charge of us; the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ had appointed him in command of us. When there was an hour between us and the water, Abû Bakr told us to make a stop at the end of the night. Then led us in a raid and we reached the water, and we killed some of them and took some of them as prisoners. I looked at a group of people, among whom were children, and I was afraid that they would reach the mountain before me, so I shot an arrow between them and the mountain, and when they saw the arrow, they stopped, then I brought them, driving them along. Among them was a woman of Banû Fazârah who was wearing a leather coat, and with her was her daughter who was one of the most beautiful of the Arabs. I brought them to Abû Bakr, and Abû Bakr gave me her daughter as a prize. We came to Al-Madinah and I had not yet come close to her, and the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ met me in the marketplace and said: "O Salamah, give that woman to me." I said: O Messenger of Allâh, I like her but I have not yet come close to her. Then the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ met me in the marketplace the next day and said to me: "O Salamah, give me that woman, may Allâh bless your father." I said: She is yours, O Messenger of Allâh. By Allâh, I have not yet come close to her. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ sent her to the people of Makkah, and thus ransomed some Muslims who had been held captive in Makkah.

Chapter 15. Ruling On Fai' (Booty Acquired Without Fighting)

(المعجم ١٥) - (بَابُ حَكْمِ الْفَيْءِ)

[4574] 47 - (1756) It was narrated that Hammâm bin Munabbih said: This is what Abû Hurairah narrated to us from Muḥammad, the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, and he mentioned a number of Aḥadith, including the following: The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: "If you come to a town (and take it peacefully) and stay there, then you have your share in it, but any town that disobeys Allâh and His Messenger (and is seized by force), one fifth of it is for Allâh and His Messenger ﷺ, then the rest is for you."

[4575] 48 - (1757) It was narrated that 'Umar said: The wealth of Banû An-Naḍir was among the Fai' that Allâh granted to His Messenger ﷺ, where the Muslims did not undertake any expedition with their cavalry or camelry. It was only for the Prophet ﷺ, and he used to spend it on the annual expenditure of his family, and whatever was left he spent on animals (for fighting) and weapons, in preparation for (Jihād) for the sake of Allâh.

[4577] 49 - (...) Mâlik bin Aws said: 'Umar bin Al-Khattâb sent for me, and I came to him when the sun had risen high. I found him in his house, lying on his mattress, reclining on a leather pillow. He said to me: O Mâlik, some of your people have come to me for urgent help and I have ordered that they be given a little money. Take it and divide it among them. I said: Would that you had ordered someone else to do this. He said: Take it, O Mâlik. Then Yarfâ' came to him and said: O Amîr Al-Mu'minîn, will you let 'Uthmân, 'Abdur-Rahmân bin 'Awf, Az-Zubair and Sa'd come in? 'Umar said: Yes, so he let them in, and they came in. Then he came and said: Will you let 'Abbâs and 'Alî come in? He said: Yes, so he let them in. 'Abbâs said: O Amîr Al-Mu'minîn, will you judge between me and this treacherous, betraying, sinful liar? The people said: Yes, O Amîr Al-Mu'minîn, judge between them and let them settle the matter. - Mâlik bin Aws said: I could well imagine that they had sent them on ahead for that purpose. - 'Umar said: Wait a minute. I adjure you by Allâh, by Whose permission the heavens

Chapter 16. The Words Of The Prophet ﷺ: “We (Prophets) Have No Heirs And Whatever We Leave Behind Is Charity”

[4579] 51 - (1758) It was narrated that ‘Aishah said: When the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ died, the wives of the Prophet ﷺ wanted to send ‘Uthmân bin ‘Affân to Abû Bakr, to ask him for their inheritance from the Prophet ﷺ. ‘Aishah said to them: Didn’t the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ say: “We (Prophets) have no heirs and whatever we leave behind is charity”?

By Allāh, I will not change any of the charity of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ from how it was at the time of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and I will do the same with it as the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ did. Abū Bakr refused to give Fāṭimah anything, and Fāṭimah felt angry with Abū Bakr for that, and she forsook him and did not speak to him until she died, and she lived for six months after the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. We do not envy you for any favor that Allâh has bestowed upon you, but you did it without consulting us and we thought that we had the right (to be consulted) because of our kinship with the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ. He kept speaking to Abû Bakr until Abû Bakr's eyes filled with tears. When Abû Bakr spoke, he said: By the One in Whose Hand is my soul, kinship with the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ is dearer to me than kinship with my own people. As for this dispute that occurred between me and you concerning these properties, I have not deviated from the right path with regard to them, and I have not given up something that I saw the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ do with them, rather I have done

When Abû Bakr had prayed Zuhr, he ascended the Minbar and recited the Tashah-hud, and he spoke of 'Alî and his delay in swearing allegiance, and the excuse that he had given, then he prayed for his forgiveness. And 'Alî bin Abî Tâlib recited the Tashah-hud and spoke highly of Abû Bakr, and said that what he had done was not due to jealousy of Abû Bakr, or a refusal to accept the favor that Allâh had bestowed upon him, but we thought that we should have had a share in the matter, but it had been decided without consulting us, and we were upset with that. The Muslims were pleased with this and said: You have done the right thing. Then the Muslims became closer to 'Alî, when he did the right thing.

[4581] 53 - (...) It was narrated from Âishah that Fâtimah and Al-'Abbâs came to Abû Bakr seeking their inheritance from the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ. At that time they were asking for his land at Fadak and his share of Khaibar. Abû Bakr said to them: I heard the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ... and he quoted a Hadîth like that of 'Uqail, from Az-Zuhrî (no. 4580), except that he said: Then 'Alî stood up and spoke highly of Abû Bakr, and he mentioned his

[4582] 54 - (...) 'Urwah bin Az-Zubair narrated that 'Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, told him that Fâtimah, the daughter of the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, asked Abû Bakr, after the death of the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, to give her, her share of inheritance from that which the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ had left behind, of the Fai' that Allâh had bestowed upon him. Abû Bakr said to her: The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: "We (Prophets) have no heirs and whatever we leave behind is charity."

She lived for six months after the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, and Fâtimah used to ask Abû Bakr for her share of that which the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ had left behind of Khaibar and Fadak, and his endowments in Al-Madînah, but Abû Bakr refused to give her that. He said: I will not stop doing something that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ used to do, rather I will continue to do it.

I am afraid that if I give up something that he did, I will go astray. As for his endowment in Al-Madīnah, ‘Umar gave it to ‘Alī and ‘Abbās, but ‘Alī took most of it. As for Khaibar and Fadak, ‘Umar kept them and said: They are the endowment of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and were spent on his responsibilities and on emergencies. They were to be cared for by whoever became caliph, and this remains the case until today.

Abû Bakr came to him, picked up his cloak and put it on his shoulders. Then he embraced him from behind and said: O Prophet of Allâh, this prayer of yours to your Lord will suffice you, for He will accomplish for you what He has promised to you. Then Allâh revealed the words: “(Remember) when you sought help of your Lord and He answered you (saying): ‘I will help you with a thousand of the angels each behind the other (following one another) in succession’” [Al-Anfâl 8:9]. that and he said: "You have spoken the truth. That is part of the reinforcements from the third heaven." And on that day they killed seventy and took seventy prisoners.

Abû Zumayl said: Ibn 'Abbâs said: When the prisoners were captured, the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said to Abû Bakr and 'Umar: "What do you think (we should do) with these prisoners?" Abû Bakr said: O Prophet of Allâh, they are our cousins and kinsmen. I think that you should accept a ransom for them, which will strengthen us against the Kuffâr, and perhaps Allâh will guide them to Islam. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: "What do you think, O son of Al-Khattâb?" I said: No, by Allâh, O Messenger of Allâh. I do not think as Abû Bakr thinks. I think that you should hand them over to us so that we may strike their necks. You should hand 'Aqîl over to 'Alî so that he may strike his neck, and you should hand over so-and-so - a relative of 'Umar's - to me so that I may strike his neck, for these are the leaders and prominent figures of Kufr. But the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ inclined towards the view of Abû Bakr, and he did not incline towards what I said. The next day, I came and found the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and Abû Bakr sitting and weeping. I said:

The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "I am weeping because of what your companions suggested about accepting a ransom for the prisoners. I have been shown their punishment as close as this tree" - a tree that was close to the Prophet of Allāh ﷺ. Then Allāh revealed the words:

"It is not for a Prophet that he should have prisoners of war (and free them with ransom) until he had made a great slaughter (among his enemies) in the land. You desire the good of this world (i.e. the money of ransom for freeing the captives), but Allāh desires (for you) the Hereafter. And Allāh is All-Mighty, All-Wise.

Were it not a previous ordainment from Allāh, a severe torment would have touched you for what you took.

So enjoy what you have gotten of booty in war, lawful and good" [Al-Anfāl 8:67-69].

And Allāh permitted the booty to them.

[٤٥٨٩] ٥٩ - (١٧٦٤) حَدَّثَنَا قُتَيْبَةُ

narrated from Sa'eed bin Abî Sa'eed that he heard Abû Hurairah say: The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ sent some cavalry towards Najd, and they brought a man of Banû Hanîfah who was called Thumâmah bin Uthâl, the leader of the people of Yamâmah. They tied him to one of the pillars of the Masjid, then the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ came out to him and said: "What do you have to say, O Thumâmah?" He said: O Muḥammad, I shall say something good. If you kill me, you will kill one who has shed blood, and if you show me kindness, you will be showing kindness to one who is grateful, and if you want money, then ask, and you will be given whatever you want. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ left him alone until the next day, then he said: "What do you have to say, O Thumâmah?" He said: What I said to you: If you show me kindness, you will be showing kindness to one who is grateful, and if you kill me, you will kill one who has shed blood, and if you want money, then ask, and you will be given whatever you want. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ left him alone until the next day, then he said: "What do you have to say, O Thumâmah?" He said: I say what I already said to you: If you show me kindness, you will be showing kindness to one who is grateful, and if you kill me, you will kill one who has shed blood,

ابن سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا لَيْثٌ عَنْ سَعِيدِ ابْنِ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ يَقُولُ: بَعَثَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ خِيَلًا قِبَلَ نَجْدٍ، فَجَاءَتْ بِرَجُلٍ مِنْ بَنِي حَنِيفَةَ يُقَالُ لَهُ: ثُمَامَةُ بْنُ أُثَالٍ، سَيِّدُ أَهْلِ الْيَمَامَةِ، فَرَبَطُوهُ بِسَارِيَةٍ مِنْ سَوَارِي الْمَسْجِدِ، فَخَرَجَ إِلَيْهِ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَقَالَ: «مَاذَا عِنْدَكَ يَا ثُمَامَةُ؟!» فَقَالَ: عِنْدِي يَا مُحَمَّدُ! خَيْرٌ، إِنْ تَقَتَّلْتُ تَقْتُلْ ذَا دَمٍ، وَإِنْ تُنْعِمَ تُنْعِمَ عَلَى شَاكِرٍ، وَإِنْ كُنْتُ تُرِيدُ الْمَالَ فَسَلْ تُعْطَ مِنْهُ مَا شِئْتَ، فَتَرَكَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ، حَتَّى كَانَ بَعْدَ الْعَدِ، فَقَالَ: «مَا عِنْدَكَ يَا ثُمَامَةُ؟!» قَالَ: مَا قُلْتُ لَكَ: إِنْ تُنْعِمَ تُنْعِمَ عَلَى شَاكِرٍ، وَإِنْ تَقَتَّلْ تَقْتُلْ ذَا دَمٍ، وَإِنْ كُنْتُ تُرِيدُ الْمَالَ فَسَلْ تُعْطَ مِنْهُ مَا شِئْتَ، فَتَرَكَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ حَتَّى كَانَ مِنَ الْعَدِ، فَقَالَ: «مَاذَا عِنْدَكَ يَا ثُمَامَةُ؟!» فَقَالَ عِنْدِي مَا قُلْتُ لَكَ: إِنْ تُنْعِمَ تُنْعِمَ عَلَى شَاكِرٍ، وَإِنْ تَقَتَّلْ تَقْتُلْ ذَا دَمٍ، وَإِنْ كُنْتُ تُرِيدُ الْمَالَ فَسَلْ تُعْطَ مِنْهُ مَا شِئْتَ، فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «أَطْلِقُوا ثُمَامَةَ» فَانْطَلَقَ إِلَى نَخْلٍ قَرِيبٍ مِنَ الْمَسْجِدِ، فَاعْتَسَلَ، ثُمَّ دَخَلَ الْمَسْجِدَ فَقَالَ: أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَأَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهُ وَرَسُولُهُ، and if you want money, then ask, and you will be given whatever you want. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "Let Thumamah go." So he went to some date palms that were near the Masjid, and washed himself, then he entered the Masjid and said: I bear witness that none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh and I bear witness that Muḥammad is His slave and Messenger. O Muḥammad, by Allāh, there was no face on earth that was more hateful to me than your face, but now your face has become the dearest of all faces to me. By Allāh, there was no religion on earth that was more hateful to me than your religion, but now your religion has become the dearest of all religions to me. By Allāh, there was no city on earth that was more hateful to me than your city, but now your city has become the dearest of all cities to me. Your cavalry seized me when I was intending to do Umrah. What do you think? The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ gave him glad tidings and told him to do Umrah. When he came to Makkah, someone said to him: Have you changed your religion? He said: No, but I have submitted myself with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and no, by Allāh, no grain of wheat will come to you from Yamamah unless the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ gives permission.

Sa'eed bin Abî Sa'eed Al-Maqburi narrated that he heard Abû Hurairah say: The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ sent his cavalry towards Najd and they brought a man who was called Thumâmah bin Uthâl Al-Hanafî, the leader of the people of Yamâmah... and he quoted a Hadîth like that of Al-Laith (no. 4589) , except that he said: If you kill me you will have killed one who shed blood.

Chapter 20. Expulsion Of The Jews From The Hijâz

[4591] 61 - (1765) It was narrated that Abû Hurairah said: Whilst we were in the Masjid, the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ came out to us and said: "Let us go to the Jews." So we went out with him, until we reached them. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ stood and called them, saying: "O Jews, become Muslim and you will be safe." They said: You have conveyed (the message), O Abul-Qâsim! The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: "That is what I want. Become Muslim and you will be safe." They said: You have conveyed (the message), O Abul-Qâsim! The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: "That is what I want." He said it to them a third time, then he said: "Know that the land

Then he killed their men and distributed their women and children and their wealth among the Muslims. But some of them had joined the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, so he granted them safety and they become Muslims. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ referred judgement concerning them to Sa'd, who said: I judge that their warriors should be killed, and their children and women should be taken prisoner, and their wealth should be divided.

[4599] 66 - (...) Hishâm said: My father said: I was told that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said (to S'ad bin Mu'adh): "You have judged concerning them according to the ruling of Allāh."

[٤٥٩٨] ٦٥ - (١٧٦٩) حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ وَمُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْعَلَاءِ الْهَمْدَانِيُّ، كِلَاهُمَا عَنْ ابْنِ نُمَيْرٍ، قَالَ ابْنُ الْعَلَاءِ: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ نُمَيْرٍ: حَدَّثَنَا هِشَامٌ عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ: أُصِيبَ سَعْدٌ يَوْمَ الْخَنْدَقِ، رَمَاهُ رَجُلٌ مِنْ قُرَيْشٍ [يُقَالُ لَهُ] ابْنُ الْعَرِيقَةِ، رَمَاهُ فِي الْأَكْحَلِ، فَضَرَبَ عَلَيْهِ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ خِيَمَةً فِي الْمَسْجِدِ يُعَوِّدُهُ مِنْ قَرِيبٍ، فَلَمَّا رَجَعَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ مِنَ الْخَنْدَقِ، وَضَعَ السَّلَاحَ، فَاعْتَسَلَ، فَأَتَى جَبْرِيلُ وَهُوَ يَنْفُضُ رَأْسَهُ مِنَ الْعُبَارِ، فَقَالَ: وَضَعْتَ السَّلَاحَ؟ وَاللَّهِ! مَا وَضَعْنَاهُ، اخْرُجْ إِلَيْهِمْ، فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «فَإَيْنَ؟» فَأَشَارَ إِلَى بَنِي قُرَيْظَةَ، فَقَاتَلَهُمْ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ، فَتَزَلُّوا عَلَى حُكْمِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ، فَردَّ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ الْحُكْمَ فِيهِمْ إِلَى سَعْدٍ، قَالَ: فَإِنِّي أَحْكُمُ فِيهِمْ أَنْ تُقْتَلَ الْمُقَاتِلَةُ، وَأَنْ تُسَبَى الذَّرِيَّةُ وَالنِّسَاءُ، وَتُقَسَمَ أَمْوَالُهُمْ.

[٤٥٩٩] ٦٦ - (...) حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو كُرَيْبٍ: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ نُمَيْرٍ: حَدَّثَنَا هِشَامٌ قَالَ: قَالَ أَبِي: فَأُخْبِرْتُ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ: «لَقَدْ حَكَمْتَ فِيهِمْ بِحُكْمِ اللَّهِ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ».

[4600] 67 - (...) It was narrated from 'Aishah that when Sa'd's wound became dry and was about to heal, he said: O Allāh, You know that there is nothing dearer to me than striving in Jihād for Your sake, against people who disbelieved in Your Messenger ﷺ and expelled him. O Allāh, if any war against Quraish remains, keep me alive so that I may fight in Jihād against them for Your sake. O Allāh, I think that You have ended the war between us and them. If You have ended the war between us and them, then open my wound so that my death may be due to that. Then he began to bleed from the base of his throat, and the people - there were some tents of Banû Ghifâr in the Masjid with him - were startled when they saw the blood flowing towards them. Then they said: O people of the tents, what is this that is coming from you? Then they saw that Sa'd's wound was pouring with blood and he died of that.

[4601] 68 - (...) A similar report (as no. 4600) was narrated from Hishâm with this chain, except that he said: He (i.e., Sa'd bin Mu'âdh) began to bleed that night, and the blood flowed until he died. And he added in his Hadîth: that is when the poet said:

Hark, O Sa'd, Sa'd of Banû Mu'âdh

Chapter 23. Hastening To Fight, And Giving Precedence To The More Urgent Of Two Tasks When A Choice Must Be Made

[4602] 69 - (1770) It was narrated that 'Abdullâh said: The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ called out to us on the day he returned from (the battle of) Al-Ahzâb: "No one should pray Zuhr except in Banû Quraizah." But some people were afraid that the time (for Zuhr) would end, so they prayed before reaching Banû Quraizah, and others said: We will not pray anywhere but where the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ commanded us, even if the time ends. And he (ﷺ) did not criticize either of the two groups.

Chapter 24. The Muhâjirûn Returned To The Anṣâr The Gifts Of Trees And Fruits When They Became Independent Of Means Through The Conquests

[4603] 70 - (17771) It was narrated that Anas bin Mâlik said: When the Muhâjirûn came from Makkah to Al-Madînah, they came with nothing in their hands. The Anṣâr were people with land and date palms, so they shared what they had with them, giving them half of the yield each year, and they (the Muhâjirîn) gave their labour in return. The mother of Anas bin Mâlik was called Umm Sulaim, and she was also the mother of ‘Abdullâh bin Abî Talḥah, who was the brother of Anas through his mother. Umm Anas had given the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ some date palms of hers, and the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ gave them to Umm Ayman, his freed slave, the mother of Usâmah bin Zaid.

Ibn Shihâb said: Anas bin Mâlik told me that when the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ had finished fighting the people of Khaibar, and had gone back to Al-Madînah, the Muhâjirûn gave back their gifts of fruits and produce to the Anṣâr. He said: The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ gave the date palms back to my mother, and the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ gave Umm Ayman Ibn Shihāb said: Umm Ayman, the mother of Usamah bin Zaid, was the slave woman of ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib, and she was from Ethiopia. When Āminah gave birth to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, after his father had died, Umm Ayman looked after him, then when the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ grew up, he manumitted her and arranged her marriage to Zaid bin Hārithah, she died five months after the death of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ.

[4604] 71 - (...) It was narrated from Anas that a man put the date palms on his land at the Prophet's disposal, until he conquered Quraizah and An-Nadīr, after which he returned them to the one who had given them to him.

Anas said: My family told me to go to the Prophet ﷺ and ask him for what they had given to him, or some of it. But the Prophet ﷺ had given it to Umm Ayman, so I went to the Prophet ﷺ and he gave them to me, then Umm Ayman came and put a cloth around my neck and said: By Allāh, we will not give them to you, after he gave them to me. The Prophet of Allāh ﷺ said: "O

Chapter 26. The Prophet ﷺ Wrote To Heraclius, The Ruler Of Syria, Inviting Him To Islam

[4607] 74 - (1773) It was narrated from Ibn 'Abbās that Abū Sufyān told him: During the truce between me and the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, I set out, and whilst I was in Syria, a letter came from the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ to Heraclius, the ruler of the Byzantines. Dihyah Al-Kalbī brought the letter, and gave it to the ruler of Busra, and the ruler of Busra gave it to Heraclius. Heraclius said: Is there anyone here from the people of this man who claims that he is a Prophet? They said: Yes. I was called, along with a number of men from Quraish, and we entered upon Heraclius, who seated us before him and said: Which of you is closest in kinship to this man who claims that he is a Prophet? Abū Sufyān said: I said: I am. So he seated Abû Sufyân said: By Allâh, were it not for the fear that people would say that I lied, I would have lied. Then he said to his interpreter: Ask him, what is his (the Prophet's) lineage among you? I said: He is of good lineage among us. He said: Was there any king among his forefathers? I said: No. He said: Did you ever accuse him of lying before he said what he said? I said: No. He said: Who are his followers? Are they the nobles among the people or the lowly? I said: The lowly. He said: Are they increasing in number or decreasing? He said: They are increasing. He said: Have any of them turned away from his religion after entering it, out of dissatisfaction? I said: No. He said: Have you fought him? I said: Yes. He said: How was (the outcome of) your fighting with him? I said: The war between us goes by turns; sometimes he prevails over us and sometimes we prevail over him. He said: Does he act treacherously? I said: No, but we have recently concluded a truce with him, and we do not know what he will do.

فَقَالَ هِرْقُلُ: هَلْ هَهُنَا أَحَدٌ مِنْ قَوْمِ هَذَا الرَّجُلِ الَّذِي يَزْعُمُ أَنَّهُ نَبِيٌّ؟ قَالُوا: نَعَمْ، قَالَ: فَدَعَيْتُ فِي نَفَرٍ مِنْ قُرَيْشٍ، فَدَخَلْنَا عَلَى هِرْقُلَ، فَأَجْلَسَنَا بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ، فَقَالَ: أَيُّكُمْ أَقْرَبُ نَسَبًا مِنْ هَذَا الرَّجُلِ الَّذِي يَزْعُمُ أَنَّهُ نَبِيٌّ؟ فَقَالَ أَبُو سُفْيَانَ: فَقُلْتُ: أَنَا، فَأَجْلَسُونِي بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ، وَأَجْلَسُوا أَصْحَابِي خَلْفِي، ثُمَّ دَعَا بَرَجْمَانِي فَقَالَ لَهُ: قُلْ لَهُمْ: إِنِّي سَأِلْتُ هَذَا؟ عَنِ الرَّجُلِ الَّذِي يَزْعُمُ أَنَّهُ نَبِيٌّ، فَإِنْ كَذَّبَنِي فَكَذِّبُوهُ، قَالَ: فَقَالَ أَبُو سُفْيَانَ: وَائِمُ اللَّهُ! لَوْلَا مَخَافَةُ أَنْ يُؤْتَرَ عَلَيَّ الْكَذِبُ لَكَذَّبْتُ، ثُمَّ قَالَ لِبَرَجْمَانِي: سَلْهُ، كَيْفَ حَسَبُهُ فِيكُمْ؟ قَالَ: قُلْتُ: هُوَ فِينَا ذُو حَسَبٍ، قَالَ: فَهَلْ كَانَ مِنْ آبَائِهِ مَلِكٌ؟ قُلْتُ: لَا، قَالَ: فَهَلْ كُنْتُمْ تَتَهَمُونَهُ بِالْكَذِبِ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَقُولَ مَا قَالَ؟ قُلْتُ: لَا، قَالَ: وَمَنْ يَتَّبِعُهُ؟ أَشَرَأَفُ النَّاسِ أَمْ ضَعَفَاؤُهُمْ؟ قَالَ: قُلْتُ: بَلْ ضَعَفَاؤُهُمْ، قَالَ: أَيْرِيدُونَ أَمْ يَنْقُصُونَ؟ قَالَ: قُلْتُ: لَا، بَلْ يَزِيدُونَ، قَالَ: هَلْ يَرْتَدُّ أَحَدٌ مِنْهُمْ عَنْ دِينِهِ، بَعْدَ أَنْ يَدْخُلَ فِيهِ سَخَطَةٌ لَهُ؟ قَالَ: قُلْتُ: لَا، قَالَ: فَهَلْ قَاتَلْتُمُوهُ؟ قُلْتُ: نَعَمْ، قَالَ: فَكَيْفَ كَانَ قِتَالُكُمْ

He (Abû Sufyân) said: By Allâh, I could not say anything more than that.

He said: Has anyone said such a thing before him? I said: No. He said to his interpreter: Tell him: I asked you about his lineage and you said that he is of good lineage among you; such are the Messengers, who are sent from the best lineages of their people. I asked: Was there any king among his forefathers, and you said: No. If there had been any king among his forefathers, I would have said that he was a man seeking the kingdom of his forefathers. I asked about his followers, whether they were lowly or noble, and you said they were lowly. Such are the followers of the Messengers. I asked you whether you accused him of lying before he said what he said, and you said no. I knew that if he did not tell lies about people, he would not tell lies about Allâh. I asked you whether anyone had turned away from his religion after entering it, out of dissatisfaction with it, and you said: No. Such is faith: when it penetrates deeply into the heart. I asked you whether they are increasing in number or decreasing, and you said that they are increasing. Such is faith, until it prevails. I asked you whether you have fought them, and you said that you have fought them, and the war between you and him goes by turns: sometimes he defeats you and sometimes you defeat him. Thus the Messengers are tested, but ultimately the victory is theirs. I asked you whether he acts treacherously, and you said that he does not act treacherously. Such are the Messengers, they do not act treacherously. I asked you whether anyone had said such a thing before, and you said: No. I thought that if anyone had said such a thing before, he would be a man who was following what was said before. Then he said: What does he enjoin upon you? I said: He enjoins us to pray, give Zakât, uphold ties of kinship and remain chaste. He said: If what you say about him is true, then he is a Prophet. I knew that he would appear, but I did not think that he would be from among you. If I knew that I would be able to reach him safely, I would like to meet him, and if I were with him, I would wash his feet. His dominion will most certainly reach that which is beneath my feet.

Then he called for the letter of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and read it. It said: "In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. From Muḥammad the Messenger of Allāh to Heraclius the ruler of the Byzantines. Peace be upon those who follow true guidance. I invite you with the call of Islam.

Become Muslim and you will be safe. Become Muslim and Allāh will give you a twofold reward, but if you turn away, then upon you will be the sins of the peasants (your subjects). Say (O Muḥammad ﷺ): 'O people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians): Come to a word that is just between us and you, that we worship none but Allāh (Alone), and that we associate no partners with Him, and that none of us shall take others as lords besides Allāh. Then, if they turn away, say: Bear witness that we are Muslims.' [Al 'Imrân 3:64].” When he had finished reading the letter, there were raised voices and a great deal of clamour, and he ordered that we be expelled. I said to my companions when we left: Ibn Abî Kabshah (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) has come to wield a great deal of power; the king of Banû Al-Aṣfar is afraid of him.

I continued to be certain that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ would prevail, until Allāh caused me to become Muslim.

[4608] (...) It was narrated from Ibn Shihâb with this chain (a similar Ḥadīth as no. 4607), and he added: When Allāh inflicted defeat on the Persian troops, Caesar travelled from Homs to Aelia (Jerusalem) to show his gratitude to Allāh. And he said in the Ḥadīth: “From Muḥammad,

Chapter 27. The Prophet ﷺ Wrote To The Kings Of The Kuffār, Inviting Them To Islam

[4609] 75 - (1774) It was narrated from Anas that the Prophet of Allāh ﷺ wrote to Chosroes, Caesar, the Negus and to every tyrant, calling them to Allāh. That was not the Negus for whom the Prophet ﷺ offered the funeral prayer.

[4610] (...) It was narrated from Qatādah that Anas bin Mâlik narrated a similar report (as no. 4609) from the Prophet ﷺ, but he did not say: That was not the Negus for whom the Prophet ﷺ offered the funeral prayer.

Chapter 28. The Battle Of Hunain

(المعجم ٢٨) - (بَابُ غَزْوَةِ حَنِين)

[4612] 76 - (1775) It was narrated that Ibn Shihâb said: Kathîr bin ‘Abbâs bin ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib said: ‘Abbâs said: I was present with the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ on the day of (of the battle of) Hunain. Abû Sufyân bin Al-Hârith bin ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib and I stayed close to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and did not leave him. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ was riding a white mule of his, that had been given to him by Farwah bin Nufâthah Al-Judhâmi. When the Muslims and the Kuffâr met, the Muslims turned and fled, but the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ spurred his mule towards the Kuffâr. ‘Abbâs said: I was holding on to the reins of the mule of the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, checking it so that it did not go too fast, and Abû Sufyân was holding on to the stirrup of the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: “O ‘Abbâs, call the people of Al-Samurah.”^[1] ‘Abbâs - who was a man with a loud voice - said: I said at the top of my voice: Where are the people of Al-Samurah? He said: By Allâh, when they heard my voice, they came back like cows coming back to their calves, saying: "Here we are, here we are!" They fought with the Kuffâr, then the call went out to the Anṣâr: O Anṣâr, O Anṣâr! And the last to be called were Banû Al-Hârith bin Al-Khazraj. They said: O Banû Al-Hârith bin Al-Khazraj, O Banû Al-Hârith bin Al-Khazraj! The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, seated on his mule, craned his neck to watch the fighting, and the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: "Now the battle is raging." Then the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ took some pebbles and flung them at the faces of the Kuffâr, then he said: "They are defeated, by the Lord of Muḥammad ﷺ!" Then I went and looked, and saw that the fighting was as it had been before. He said: By Allâh, all he did was throw some pebbles at them. Then their force was spent and they began to retreat.

[4613] 77 - (...) A similar report (as no. 4612) was narrated from Az-Zuhrî with this chain, except that he said: Farwah bin Nu'âmah Al-Judhâmi. And he said: "They have been defeated, by the Lord of the Ka'bah, they have been defeated, by the Lord of the Ka'bah!" and he added: until Allâh defeated them.

He said: No, by Allâh, the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ did not turn his back, but some young men among his Companions were hasty and ill-prepared. They did not have any weapons, or many weapons, and they met some archers from among Hawâzin and Banû Nasr whose arrows hardly ever missed their targets. They shot at them, and hardly any of their arrows missed. They came to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, and the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ was on his white mule, and Abû Sufyân bin Al-Hârith bin ‘Abdul-Muttalib was leading it. He (ﷺ) dismounted and prayed for help, saying:

I passed by the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ when I was running away, and he was on his white mule. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: "The son of Al-Akwa' has come back in fear." When they gathered around the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, he dismounted and picked up a handful of dust from the ground, then he threw it in the direction of (the enemy) and said: "May their faces be deformed." There was not one man among them whom Allâh had created, but his face was filled with dust from that handful, and they turned and fled. Thus Allâh defeated them, and the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ divided their booty among the Muslims.

They caught him, and the Companions of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ questioned him about Abû Sufyân and his Companions, but he said: I do not know about Abû Sufyân, but Abû Jahl, 'Utbah, Shaibah and Umayyah bin Khalaf are there. Chapter 31. The Conquest Of Makkah [4622] 84 - (1780) It was narrated that Abû Hurairah said: Some delegations came to Mu'âwiyah. (The sub-narrator said:) That was during Ramadân, and we used to make food for one another. Abû Hurairah was one of those who frequently invited us to his place. I said: Should I not make some food and invite them to my place? So I ordered that food be prepared, then I met Abû Hurairah in the afternoon and said: The invitation is at my place tonight. He said: Have you beaten me to it? I said: Yes, and I have invited them. Abû Hurairah said: Shall I not tell you one of your Aḥadīth, O Anṣār? Then he mentioned the conquest of Makkah and said: The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ came to Makkah, and he appointed Az-Zubair in charge of one flank of the army and Khâlid in charge of the other, and he appointed Abû 'Ubaidah in charge of the troops that had no armour. They seized the bottom of the valley, and the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was in the midst of a large troop. He looked and saw me, and he said: "O Abû Hurairah!" I said: Here I am, O Messenger of Allāh. He said: "Do not let anyone come to me but the Anṣār."

Someone other than Shaybân added: He (ﷺ) said: "Call the Anṣâr to me," and they gathered around him. Quraish gathered together their followers from various tribes, and said: Let us send these people forward, and if any of them gets anything, we will be with them, but if anything happens to them, we will give what we are asked for. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: "Look at the followers of Quraish," then he gestured with his hands, one on top of the other. Then he said: "Until you meet me at Aṣ-Ṣafa." So we set out, and not one of us wanted to kill a particular person but he killed him, and not one among them could offer any resistance. Abû Sufyân came and said: O Messenger of Allâh, shedding the blood of Quraish has become permissible; there will be no more Quraish after today. Then he (ﷺ) said: "Whoever enters the house of Abû Sufyân will be safe." The Anṣâr said to one another: The man has been overtaken by love for his city and compassion towards his kinsmen. Abû Hurairah said: The Revelation came upon him, and when the Revelation came, it was obvious to us, and no one could raise his eyes to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ until the Revelation ceased. When the Revelation ceased, the Messenger of Allâh

ﷺ said: "O Anṣâr." They said: Here we are, O Messenger of Allâh. He said: "Did you say: The man has been overtaken with love for his city?" They said: That is so. He said: "No. I am the slave of Allâh and His Messenger. I emigrated for the sake of Allâh and to you. I will live with you and I will die with you." They came to him weeping and said: By Allâh, we only said what we said out of devotion to Allâh and His Messenger ﷺ. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: "Allâh and His Messenger affirm your sincerity and accept your apology." Then the people went to the house of Abû Sufyân, and the people locked their doors. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ came to the Black Stone and touched it, then he circumambulated the House. Then he came to an idol that was beside the House, that they used to worship. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ had a bow in his hand, and he took hold of the end of the bow, and when he came to the idol he poked it in the eyes and said: "Truth (i.e., Islamic Monotheism or this Qur'ân or Jihâd against polytheists) has come and Bâtil (falsehood, i.e. Satan or polytheism) has vanished" [Al-Isrâ' 17:81]. When he had completed his Tawâf he went to Aṣ-Ṣafa and climbed up it, until he could see the House, and he raised his hands and started to praise

I said: O Abû Hurairah, why don't you narrate to us something from the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ until our food is ready? He said: We were with the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ on the day of the conquest (of Makkah). He (ﷺ) put Khâlîd bin Al-Walîd in charge of the right flank and Az-Zubair on the left, and he put Abû ‘Ubaidah in charge of the foot soldiers who (were to advance to) the bottom of the valley. Chapter 32. Removal Of Idols From Around The Ka'bah [4625] 87 - (1781) It was narrated that 'Abdullâh said: The Prophet ﷺ entered Makkah, and around the Ka'bah there were three hundred and sixty idols. He started poking them with a stick that was in his hand, saying: "Truth (i.e. Islamic Monotheism or this Qur'ân or Jihâd against polytheists) has come and Bâtîl (falsehood, i.e. Satan or polytheism) has vanished. Surely, Bâtîl is ever bound to vanish" [Al-Isrâ' 17:81] and "Al-Haqq (the truth, i.e. the Qur'ân and Allâh's Revelation) has come, and Al-Bâtîl [falsehood - Iblees (Satan)] can neither create anything nor resurrect (anything)" [Sabâ' 34:49]. Ibn 'Umar added: On the day of the conquest.

[4626] (...) It was narrated from Ibn Abî Najîh with this chain (a Hadîth similar to no. 4625), up to the word Zahûqan' (bound to vanish), and he did not mention the other Verse.

Chapter 33. No Man Of Quraish Is To Be Captured Then Killed After The Conquest

[4627] 88 - (1782) It was narrated that Ash-Sha'bî said: 'Abdullâh bin Mutî' narrated to me that his father said: I heard the Prophet ﷺ say on the day of the conquest of Makkah: "No man of Quraish is to be captured then killed after this day, until the Day of Resurrection."

[4628] 89 - (...) Zakariya narrated it with this chain (a Hadîth similar to no. 4627) and added: None of the rebellious men of Quraish became Muslim except Mutî'. His name was Al-'Âsî (meaning disobedient) but the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ named him Mutî' (meaning obedient).

Chapter 34. The Truce Of Al-Hudaibiyah

[4629] 90 - (1783) Al-Barâ' bin 'Azîb said: 'Alî bin Abî Tâlib wrote down the truce between the Prophet ﷺ and the idolaters on the day of Al-Hudaibiyah. He said to ‘Alī: “Write down the terms between us: In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. This is what has been agreed by Muḥammad the Messenger of Allāh.” The Mushrikūn said to him: If we knew that you were the Messenger of Allāh we would have followed you. Rather write: Muḥammad bin ‘Abdullāh. So he told ‘Alī to erase it, but ‘Alī said: No, by Allāh, I will not erase it. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Show me where it is.” So he showed him where it was and he erased it, and he wrote: “bin ‘Abdullāh.” He stayed there for three days, then on the third day they said to ‘Alī: This is the last day stipulated for your companion. Tell him to leave. So he told him about that and he said: “Yes,” and left.

Ibn Janāb said in his narration, instead of ‘we would have followed you,’ ‘we would have sworn allegiance to you.’

He said: “Write: From Muḥammad the Messenger of Allâh.” They said: If we knew that you were the Messenger of Allâh, we would have followed you. Rather write your name and the name of your father. He said: “Of course.” He said: Are not our slain in Paradise whilst their slain are in Hell? He said: “Of course.” He said: Then why should we accept a deal that is detrimental to the interests of our religion and go back when Allāh has not decided the issue between us and them? One of the Anṣārī men went forward and fought until he was killed. Then they were surrounded again, and he said: "Who will repel them from us and Paradise will be his, or he will be my companion in Paradise?" Another Anṣārī man went forward and fought until he was killed, and that continued until all seven had been killed. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to his two companions: "We have not been fair to our companions."

[4642] 101 - (1790) 'Abdul-'Aziz bin Abî Ḥāzim narrated that his father heard Sahl bin Sa'd being asked about the wounds sustained by the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ on the day of (the battle of) Uḥud. He said: The face of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was wounded and his front tooth was broken, and his helmet was crushed on his head. Fāṭimah, the daughter of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, was washing away the blood, and 'Alī bin Abî Ṭālib was pouring water on it from a shield. The worst of the people went and got it, and when the Prophet ﷺ prostrated, he put it on his shoulders. They laughed, and started leaning against one another, and I was standing there, watching. narrated from ‘Urwah, that Usamah bin Zaid told him that the Prophet ﷺ rode a donkey, on which was a saddle beneath which was a blanket from Fadak, and Usamah rode on it with him, behind him, when he went to visit Sa’d bin ‘Ubâdah (who was sick) in (the dwellings of) Banû Al-Hârith bin Al-Khazraj. That was before the battle of Badr. He passed by a gathering which was a mixed company of Muslims, idolaters and Jews, among whom was ‘Abdullâh bin Ubayy. ‘Abdullâh bin Rawâḥah was also present in the gathering.

When the gathering was engulfed by dust stirred up by the animal, ‘Abdullâh bin Ubayy covered his nose with his cloak and said: “Do not scatter dust over us.” The Prophet ﷺ greeted them with Salâm, then he dismounted and called them to Allâh, and recited Qur’ân to them. ‘Abdullâh bin Ubayy said: “O man, is there is nothing better than that? If what you say is true, do not bother us in our gatherings. Go back to your place, and if any of us come to you, you can tell him your stories.” ‘Abdullâh bin Rawâḥah said: “Come to us in our gatherings, for we love that.” Then the Muslims, idolaters and Jews began to rebuke one another, until they were about to come to blows, and the Prophet ﷺ kept trying to calm them down. Then he rode his Ibn Mas'ûd set out and found that he had been struck by the two sons of 'Afrâ' and he was cold (near death). He took hold of his beard and said: 'Are you Abû Jahl?' He said: 'Is there anyone better than a man whom you have killed - or whose people have killed him?'"

And Abû Mijlaz said: "Abû Jahl said: 'Would that someone other than a peasant had killed me.'"

He said: 'Speak to him (and say whatever you want).' So he went to him and spoke to him, and reminded him of that which was between them. He said: 'This man is asking us for charity and he is asking us for too much.' When he heard that he said: 'And by Allāh, you will become more tired of him.' Chapter 43. The Battle Of Khaibar [4665] 120 - (1365) It was narrated from Anas bin Mâlik that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ launched a campaign against Khaibar. "We prayed Fajr there when it was still dark, then the Prophet of Allâh ﷺ rode and Abû Ṭalḥah rode, and I was seated behind Abû Ṭalḥah (on his mount). The Prophet ﷺ let his mount run through the narrow streets of Khaibar, and my knee was touching the thigh of the Prophet of Allâh ﷺ. The Izâr slipped from the thigh of the Prophet of Allâh ﷺ, and I could see the whiteness of the thigh of the Prophet of Allâh ﷺ. When he entered the town, he said: 'Allâhu-Akbar! Khaibar is destroyed! Then, when we descend in their courtyard (i.e. near to them), evil will be the morning for those who had been warned!'^[1] He said it three times. The people had come out to their work and they said:

الْمَدِينَةَ، فَبَعَثَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ بِظَهْرِهِ مَعَ
رَبَاحٍ غُلَامٍ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ، وَأَنَا مَعَهُ،
وَخَرَجْتُ مَعَهُ بِفَرَسٍ طَلْحَةَ، أُنْدِيهِ مَعَ
الظَّهْرِ، فَلَمَّا أَصْبَحْنَا إِذَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ
الْفَزَارِيُّ قَدْ أَغَارَ عَلَى ظَهْرِ رَسُولِ
اللَّهِ ﷺ. فَاسْتَأْفَهُ أَجْمَعُ، وَقَتَلَ رَاعِيَهُ،
قَالَ فَقُلْتُ: يَا رَبَّاحُ! خُذْ هَذَا الْفَرَسَ
فَابْلِغْهُ طَلْحَةَ بْنَ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ، وَأَخْبِرْ رَسُولَ
اللَّهِ ﷺ أَنَّ الْمُشْرِكِينَ قَدْ أَغَارُوا عَلَى
سَرْحِهِ، قَالَ: ثُمَّ قُمْتُ عَلَى أَكْمَةٍ
فَاسْتَقْبَلْتُ الْمَدِينَةَ، فَتَادَيْتُ ثَلَاثًا: يَا
صَبَاحَاهُ! ثُمَّ خَرَجْتُ فِي آثَارِ الْقَوْمِ
أَرْمِيهِم بِالْبَبْلِ، وَأَرْتَجِرُ، أَقُولُ:

أَنَا ابْنُ الْأَكْوَعِ

وَالْيَوْمُ يَوْمُ الرُّضْعِ

فَالْحَقُّ رَجُلًا مِنْهُمْ، فَأَصُكُ سَهْمًا فِي
رَحْلِهِ، حَتَّى يَخْلَصَ نَصْلُ السَّهْمِ إِلَى through his saddle and pierced his shoulder, and I said: "Take that!"

"I am the son of Al-Akwa'

And today is the day when the ignoble meet their doom."

He said: 'By Allāh, I kept shooting at them and killing their mounts; every time a horseman came back towards me, I went to a tree and sat at its foot, then I shot him and killed his horse. Then when the mountains narrowed in and they entered a narrow gorge, I climbed up the mountain and started repelling them with stones, and I kept following them until I managed to recapture all the camels of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and they gave up. But I pursued them, shooting at them, until they dropped more than thirty cloaks and thirty spears in order to lighten their loads. They did not throw down anything but I put a stone on it as a marker for the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and his Companions to recognize it. Then they came to a narrow pass, and so-and-so the son of Badr Al-Fazârî came to them, and they sat down to eat lunch. I sat atop a stone and Al-Fazârî said: "What is this that I see?" They said: "By Allāh, yesterday we encountered this one and he has not left us since it was dark; he kept shooting at us until he took everything that was in our hands."

He said: "Four of you should get up and rush at him." So four of them climbed up the mountain towards me, and when it became possible to talk, I said: "Do you know me?" They said: "No, who are you?" I said: "I am Salamah bin Al-Akwa', and by the One Who has honored the face of Muḥammad, I will not pursue any man among you but I will catch him, but no man among you who pursues me will catch me." One of them said: "I think (he is right)." So they went back, but I did not move from that place until I saw the horsemen of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ riding through the trees. The first of them was Al-Akḥram Al-Asadī, after whom came Abū Qatādah Al-Anṣārī, after whom came Al-Miqdād bin Al-Aswad Al-Kindī. I took hold of the reins of Al-Akḥram and they (the idolaters) turned and fled. I said: "O Akḥram, guard yourselves against them lest they cut you off, until the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and his Companions join you." He said: "O Salamah, if you believe in Allāh and the Last Day, and you know that Paradise is true and Hell is true, then do not stand between me and martyrdom." So I let him go, and he and 'Abdur-Raḥmān met. He killed the horse of 'Abdur-Raḥmān and 'Abdur-Raḥmān stabbed him and killed him, then he turned his horse around. Abū Qatādah, the horseman of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, caught up with ‘Abdur-Rahmān and stabbed him and killed him. By the One Who has honored the face of Muḥammad, I followed them, running on foot, until I could not see the Companions of Muḥammad ﷺ or their dust behind me, until before the sun set, when they reached a pass where there was water, which was called Dhu Qarad, where they could drink, because they were thirsty.

They looked at me, running behind them, and I turned them out of there before they even tasted a drop of it. They went out and ran down a mountain path, and I ran behind one of their men and shot him in the shoulder blade. I said: “Take that! I am the son of Al-Akwa’ and today is the day when the ignoble meet their doom.” He said: “May his mother be bereft of him! He has been chasing us since morning.” I said: “Yes, O enemy of yourself, I have been chasing you since morning.” They left behind two horses on the mountain path, and I brought them to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. ‘Āmir met me with a container in which there was milk diluted with water, and a container in which there was water, and I performed Wuḍū’ and drank some of it. Then I went to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, who was at the water from which I had driven them away. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ had taken those camels and everything that I had captured from the idolaters, and all of the spears and cloaks. Bilāl had slaughtered one of the camels that I had captured from the people, and he was roasting part of its liver and hump for the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. I said: “O Messenger of Allāh, let me select one hundred men from among the people and follow those people, so that there will be no one who could convey the news but I will kill him.”

The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ smiled so broadly that his molars appeared in the light of the fire, then he said: “O Salamah, do you think that you can do that?” I said: “Yes, by the One Who has honored you.” He said: “Now they are being welcomed in the land of Ghatafân.” A man from Ghatafân came and so-and-so slaughtered a camel for them. As they were skinning it, they saw a cloud of dust, and they said: “The people have come!” They fled, and the next morning the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “The best of our horsemen today was Abû Qatadah, and the best of our foot soldiers was Salamah.” Then the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ gave me two shares, the share of a horseman and the share of a foot soldier; he gave me them both. Then the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ seated me behind him on Al-‘Aḍbâ’ (his she-camel), and we came back to Al-Madînah. There was a man among the Anṣâr who could not be beaten in a race. He started saying: “Is there anyone who will race me back to Al-Madînah? Who will race me back to Al-Madînah?” And he started repeating that. When I heard his words, I said: “Will you not show honor and respect to a noble man?” He said: “No, unless he is the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ.” I said: “O Messenger of Allâh, may my father and mother be ransomed for you; let me get down and race this man.” He said: “If you wish.” I said: “I am coming to you.”

I leapt up and started running. I slowed down on one or two high places where I starting gasping, then I followed his tracks, then I slowed down on one or two high places, then I rushed and caught up with him. I tapped him between the shoulders and said: “You have been overtaken, by Allâh!” I said: “I think so.” Then I beat him to Al-Madînah. Then by Allâh, we only stayed there for three nights before we went out to Khaibar with the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ. My paternal uncle ‘Âmir started reciting lines of poetry to the people, saying:

“By Allâh, were it not for Allâh we would not have been guided,
Or given charity or offered prayers.

أَنْتَ وَأُمِّي ذَرْنِي فَلِأَسَابِقِ الرَّجُلِ، قَالَ: «إِنْ شِئْتُ» قَالَ قُلْتُ: أَذْهَبَ إِلَيْكَ، وَنَتَيْتُ رِجْلَيَّ فَطَفَرْتُ فَعَدَوْتُ، قَالَ: فَرَبَطْتُ عَلَيْهِ شَرَفًا أَوْ شَرَفَيْنِ أَسْتَبْقِي نَفْسِي، ثُمَّ عَدَوْتُ فِي إِثْرِهِ، فَرَبَطْتُ عَلَيْهِ شَرَفًا أَوْ شَرَفَيْنِ، ثُمَّ إِنِّي رَفَعْتُ حَتَّى أَلْحَقَهُ، : فَأَصُكُّهُ بَيْنَ كَتِفَيْهِ، قَالَ قُلْتُ: قَدْ سُبِقْتُ، وَاللَّهِ! قَالَ: أَنَا أَظُنُّ قَالَ: فَسَبَقْتُهُ إِلَى الْمَدِينَةِ، قَالَ: فَوَاللَّهِ! مَا لَبِثْنَا إِلَّا ثَلَاثَ لَيَالٍ حَتَّى خَرَجْنَا إِلَى خَيْبَرَ مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ. قَالَ: فَجَعَلَ عَمِّي عَامِرٌ يَرْتَجِزُ بِالْقَوْمِ.

فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «مَنْ هَذَا؟»
قَالَ: أَنَا عَامِرٌ، قَالَ: «غَفَرَ لَكَ رَبُّكَ»
قَالَ: وَمَا اسْتَغْفَرَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ

We cannot do without Your favor,

So keep us steadfast when we meet (the enemy)

And send down tranquillity upon us."

The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "Who is this?" He said: "I am 'Âmir." He said: "May your Lord forgive you." Whenever the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prayed for forgiveness for a certain person, he would be martyred. 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭâb, who was riding a camel of his, called out: "O Prophet of Allāh, would that you had let us benefit from 'Âmir." When we reached Khaibar, their king Marḥab came out, brandishing his sword and saying:

"Khaibar knows that I am Marḥab
A fully armed warrior, a tried
and tested hero

When war comes, spreading its
flames."

My paternal uncle 'Âmir came out to meet him in single combat, and said:

"Khaibar knows that I am 'Âmir,
A fully-armed warrior who plunges into battle."

They exchanged blows; the sword of Marḥab struck the shield of my uncle 'Âmir, and 'Âmir went to attack from below, but his sword recoiled and struck the artery in his forearm, and that led to his death.'

Salamah said: 'I went out and saw a group of the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ, who were saying: "Âmir's deed was in vain; he killed himself." I went to the Prophet ﷺ weeping, and said: "O Messenger of Allâh, was 'Âmir's deed in vain?" He said: "Who said that?" I said: "Some of your Companions." He said: "Whoever said that is lying. Rather he will have a twofold reward." Then he sent me to 'Alî, who had sore eyes, and he said: "I will give the banner to a man who loves Allâh and His Messenger ﷺ, or who is loved by Allâh and His Messenger ﷺ." I brought 'Alî, leading him because he had sore eyes. I brought him to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, who put spittle in his eyes, and they were healed, then he gave him the banner.

Marḥab came out, saying:

"Khaibar knows that I am Marḥab
A fully armed warrior, a tried
and tested hero

When war comes, spreading its
flames."

'Alî said:

"I am the one whose mother
called him Ḥaidar (lion)

Like a lion in the forest with a fearsome countenance.

I return their attack with one more fierce."

He struck the head of Marḥab and killed him, then victory came at his hands."

Chapter 46. The Words Of Allâh, The Most High: "And He It Is Who Has Withheld Their Hands From You"^[1]

[4679] 133 - (1808) It was narrated from Anas bin Mâlik that eighty armed men from Makkah swooped down upon the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ from the mountain of At-Tan'îm, seeking to attack the Prophet ﷺ and his Companions. He captured them but spared their lives. Then Allâh revealed (the words): "And He it is Who has withheld their hands from you and your hands from them in the midst of Makkah, after He had made you victors over them."^[2]

Chapter 48. Women Who Take Part In Military Expeditions Are To Be Given A Reward But Not A Regular Share; And The Prohibition Of Killing Children Of The Enemy

asking him about five things. Ibn ‘Abbās said: “Were it not for (fear of) concealing knowledge, I would not have written to him.” Najdah wrote to him (saying): “Tell me, did the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ take women on campaigns with him? Did he give them a share (of the spoils of war)? Did he kill children? How long is an orphan considered to be such? And about the Khums - who is it for?” Ibn ‘Abbās wrote to him saying: “You wrote and asked me whether the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ took women on campaigns with him. He did take them with him, so that they might treat the wounded, and they were given a reward from the spoils of war; as for a regular share, that was not given to them. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ did not kill children, so do not kill children. And you wrote and asked me how long an orphan is considered to be such. By Allāh, if a man’s beard has grown but he is still incapable of getting his due from others or fulfilling his obligations towards them (then he is still regarded as an orphan). But when he can look after his affairs like other people, then he is no longer regarded as an orphan. And you wrote and asked me about the Khums and who it is for. We used to say that it was for us, but our people have denied it to us.”
